Hospital Is Recipient of An Unexpected Donation

The Newton and Wellesley Community Chests and Newton-Wellesley Hospital's faith in the future of private philanthropy were recently strengthened by an unexpected donation. It was shortly after noon Saturday, May 27, when three young ladies presented themselves at the hospital. They were Judith Nordstrom, 10½, her sister Linda, 4½, of 66 Warwick road, West Newton, and their neighbor, Sandra Herick, 7½, of 58 Warwick road. Judith and Sandra were dressed as nurses, while Linda carried a bunch of lilacs.

It seems that earlier in the day Judith and Sandra had produced and starred in a play about hospitals (one of the dolls was sick enough to require two shots of penicillin). Linda, being four, constituted a part of the audience. The entire proceeds of this play, $1.09, they then carried on foot to their hospital where they gave it to Dr. T. Stewart Hamilton, Director. After a short tour of parts of the new building, and after receiving graciously the thanks of the hospital for their thoughtfulness they were met by their aunt who took them home.

States German Youth Is Disillusioned and Lives in A Great Spiritual Vacuum

"The Christian church in Europe is behind numerically in the race for the youth of this generation," Rev. Dr. Edwin A. Bell, European representative of the American Baptist Foreign Mission Society told several hundred alumni of the Andover-Newton Theological School Monday.

Continuing Rev. Bell said: "German youth is definitely on the block. It is disillusioned and lives in a great spiritual vacuum. It is a rich prey for almost any kind of a movement. Little cadres of unkempt young can be seen being drilled for the Workers Militia, the State Police or the People's Army. Later on sees them booted, uniformed and marching in the streets singing with full throated gusto in tones ominous and frightening. One can also hear, on occasions,

Should Know Location of Fire Boxes

Fire Chief John E. Corcoran stated this week that many people don't know where their nearest fire alarm box is located. Frequently they're overlooked, even by those who may pass the emergency signal stations day after day for years.

According to Chief Corcoran, a recent survey shows that six out of every ten people queried have no idea where to ring in an alarm in case of fire. He urged every family to make it its business to find the closest located fire signal box.

"Fire spreads so quickly," the Chief declared, "that time wasted in turning in an alarm can result in tragedy. In a matter of a few minutes, a small fire mushrooms 50 times as big. Your best protection is to turn in a fire alarm quickly at the nearest box. Phone messages are often garbled, misdirected or delayed. The emergency signal flashed by the fire alarm box is automatic and virtually foolproof. When turning in an alarm stand by the box to give the fire department the exact location of the fire."

Chief Corcoran strongly urges that each member of the family know the location of the nearest fire alarm box. Those not quite sure where it is, are invited to get the location at fire headquarters, 1164 Centre street, Newton Centre.

Arthur A. Gath Elected President Of Carr School PTA Association

Arthur A. Gath was elected president of the Frank F. Carr School Parent-Teachers Association at the annual business meeting of the Newtonville school organization held last week.

Other officers elected were Mrs. Ingeborg Jarratt, vice president; Mrs. Lermond Simonds, executive secretary; Mrs. Wallace S. Howes, corresponding and recording secretary; James Lord, treasurer, and Mrs. Ruth Aston, teachers representative.

Dr. J. Bernard Everett, director of instruction of the Newton public schools, spoke to the PTA members on "Marks and reports of the promotional policy in Newton schools."

Dr. Everett explained that the traditional "A, B, C, D, E" method of grading students each quarter has been eliminated in Newton's primary grades because such marks mean little to the parents, as well as to the youngsters who receive them.

In describing teaching techniques used in the city, Dr.

Everett declared that teachers no longer attempt to "push" students in an effort to make those students reach a set standard.

"You don't expect to force the physical development of a child, so why try to force them intellectually?" asked Dr. Everett.

The new method of reporting a child's progress once a year was described by the director of instruction as one which makes analyzing of the individual student's traits easier for the teacher to prepare and for the parent to understand exactly how his child is doing in his class.

"It is an evaluation of traits rather than an evaluation of scholastic achievement alone," said Dr. Everett.

Four three-speed record players were given Principal Kenneth LaFlamme for school use by the PTA organization at the close of the meeting.

Rotary Members Hear Memorial Day Message

Rev. Francis D. Taylor, pastor of the Methodist Church, Upper Falls, gave a Memorial Day message to members of the Rotary Club at its meeting Monday.

He said the spirit of any people is more important than its deeds. Today we are not afraid of our cemeteries, we do not detour around them, but rather walk straight through them, to remember our heroes and loved ones, and give gratitude to God. He stated he could not understand how men can be dulled towards religion. Race, color and creed differences do not belong in the United States, he continued, and in fact are not here. He contended that what we need is more people who will give our country and home, love.

Peirce School Holds Memorial Program

A Memorial Day program was presented by the sixth grade pupils of the Peirce School under the direction of Miss Ruth J. O'Donnell, Monday.

Colonel Arthur J. Swett was introduced by his daughter Wilma, one of the fourth grade students and he stated Memorial Day is a legal holiday set apart to honor the memory of the dead. For a time after the Civil War, he stated, it was called Decoration Day and the graves of our soldiers were marked with flags. Colonel Swett pointed out that we today can help our country without engaging in war. Taking advantage of our right to vote is one way of expressing good citizenship.

Barbar Victor, sixth grade student, was the announcer.

The Wonder

Now comes a time of particular satisfaction with the green and fertile world. The brown hills are green again. Shade thickens in the valleys. Apple orchards are full of fragrant bloom, and pear trees stand clothed like brides. Lilacs perfume the evening air, and peonies bud and shoot up like fabulous beanstalks. In the deep woods the trillium nods with crimson flowers and jack stands in his green pulpit and lady's slipper opens its mossy flower. Violets attempt to purple the earth, and anemones persist in clouds of white for days after their early season should have ended. Elms are full of little leaves. Dogwood gleams, creamy-white. Maples, which seemed to dally so long with blossom, now are clothed in green.

And the soil, the garden soil that lay wet and chill so long, begins to warm up. The gardener can make obeisance to it and feel response. There is life in that soil, now, the strength of summer and the growing season. You feel it with your fingers, somehow, a vitality waiting to be tapped. The forces of growth are there, waiting for tillage and seed and understanding.

It is this sense of natural forces that is so satisfying. The tree bursting bud for a million leaves, the bush bursting into bloom, the grass covering a whole hillside. Migrating birds come in swarms, guided by some instinctive force, back to the homeland, the nesting grounds. The air fairly pulses with growth and life.

Later we will be so shaded, so overgrown, that the senses will become a little numb. It is now that we are most aware of these things, now when brown memories are so clear and the bright change is so new. It is now, when leaves are still new and flowers still full of spring, that the satisfactions and the wonder have their glow.

G.O.P. Governor's Fight a Four-Man Contest Will Curley Oppose Congressman Herter? . . . Our Military Aid to Europe Problematic . . .

From high councils in the Republican party comes word that it is now unlikely that there will be any major changes in the lineup of candidates in the race for the G.O.P. gubernatorial nomination.

This means there will be a four-man fight among former Attorney General Clarence A. Barnes, former Lieutenant Governor Arthur W. Coolidge, Judge Frankland W. L. Miles and State Senator Edward M. Rowe Dever in November.

General Daniel Needham would have entered the contest if Coolidge had been willing to withdraw from it, but the former Lieutenant Governor became annoyed by persistent rumors that he was getting out of the fight and finally served notice that he is in it to stay.

It is possible that either Senate President Harris S. Richardson or House Republican Leader Charles Gibbons may enter the field, but that would not cause any tremendous political reverberations since it is doubtful that either Gibbons or Richardson is well enough known to stand up to Barnes and Coolidge in a State-wide battle.

Reports from sound political observers indicate that Barnes has been making the greatest headway to date. He hasn't been achieving any spectacular sweep, but he has been showing progress in some sections of the State, which is more than any of his opponents can report.

Barnes has been working vigorously, hitting out forcefully and is the only one of the four who seems to be causing any real impact upon the G.O.P. voters.

If this is to be the field that will go into the primary, you may see a swing to Judge Miles on the part of those Republicans who have been scanning the G.O.P. horizon for a new face.

There are a good many political leaders who feel that Miles might well prove to be the strongest of the four candidates in November if he could manage to get by the primary. Because he has been on the bench and not in public office he would be much less vulnerable to Democratic attack than a man like Barnes, and since he has not been in the thick of the political wars he has not acquired a long list of political enemies.

However, you cannot under-estimate the potency of Barnes in a four-man contest of this kind. He is a rugged individualist who never backs away from a fight, and there are a vast number of Republicans who share his views on labor. The union leaders who would like to throw their weight against him don't wield much power in a G.O.P. primary.

Coolidge's strength lies in the fact that he is a "safe" middle-of-the-roader, who has mostly distinguished himself for his attack on Communists—a very safe group for any political candidate to blast. He went up the Republican escalator through the presidency of the Senate to become Lieutenant Governor, and in the process he acquired a large number of friends who will help him in this campaign.

He probably will draw the most help from top party leaders, but since few of them will take an open stand it's rather questionable how much their backing will be worth. The only candidate for whom Coolidge might withdraw is ex-Governor Robert F. Bradford, but Bradford's friends have just about given up any real hope of persuading him to leave his law practice for another political run.

Now ex-Mayor Curley's followers are discussing the possibility of his opposing Congressman Christian A. Herter in next November's election.

Mr. Curley's supporters could easily organize a Rumor-A-Week Club concerning the possible future political moves of the former Mayor, Governor and Congressman, and this is the latest report they have placed in circulation.

The rumors and reports undoubtedly will continue to fly until Curley returns home from Europe and probably for some time after that.

His backers already are restless for another political campaign, and they can't accept the idea that Curley will let this year go by without being a candidate for some office.

A fight between Curley and the scholarly Herter would be interesting, indeed. The two are old political foes from the days when Curley was Governor and Herter was the Republican leader in the House and his most outspoken critic.

You never can be quite certain what Curley will do or what surprise move he will make. But it's rather unlikely for several reasons that he will challenge Herter.

For one thing he probably would not be too interested in going back to Congress again. For another, he will run for Mayor next year, whatever he may do this year, and since the Hynes supporters know they will have to battle him in 1951, they would not lose any opportunity to gang up against him if his name were on the ballot in a Congressional district which includes part of Boston.

Sometimes this department wonders exactly what, if anything, we are realizing in return for the billions of dollars that we have been and are pouring into Europe.

Few persons will dispute the fact that we had and have a moral responsibility to help the people to get on their feet and not to allow them to starve.

However, the war in Europe now has been over for five years, and last week Congress was debating a $3,100,000,000 program for the Marshall Plan and other aid to Europe. Some Republicans on Capitol Hill were pointedly asking if Congress wasn't being softened up for a world-wide WPA after the Marshall Plan.

Perhaps we have had the wrong idea, but we have been under the impression that we were helping and arming the Democratic peoples of Europe so that they would stand as a bulwark against Soviet Russia, and part of that money is to be used to furnish military equipment for use in the event that Stalin plunges the continent of Europe into another war.

But a statement the other day by Congressman Philip J. Philbin of Clinton raised some doubt as to just how wise an investment that would prove if Stalin were to set the Russian war machine in motion.

Philbin is a Democrat and supports the Truman administration with reasonable regularity. He is a member of the Congressional armed services committee and consequently has access to inside military information so that his observations have more than ordinary significance.

"Most military authorities will agree," he said, "that should war start, the Soviets could move across the face of Europe to the channel ports within a matter of 20 or 30 days and in 60 days consolidate strong positions throughout all of Europe. If this is so, there would be a real danger that the equipment and supplies we delivered might be taken by the Soviets and even be used against us and our allies."

Congressman Philbin may have placed his finger on a critical military problem. If, as he says, most military authorities agree that the Russians could sweep across Europe in 30 days, then just what do they consider is being accomplished by sending armies and fighting equipment to Western Europe?

Our military experts presumably know what they're doing, but it would certainly seem as a matter of common sense that if we are going to pour money and arms into Europe we ought to fashion a defense that could hold the Soviets in check for a reasonable period of time.

It seems somewhat illogical to provide money for military assistance to the Democratic countries in Europe unless we're building something more than a feeble token resistance with the real possibility that the very equipment we ship overseas would fall into Soviet hands.

The crowds of visitors drifted from the rooms on the upper floor to the exhibits on the lower floor and most of them refreshed themselves with the tea and cakes served by the club's president, Mrs. C. Edgar Thyng and Mrs. Josephine Dudley, and then wandered out to the garden in the rear of the library which is one of the civic projects of the civic projects of the Newtonville Garden Club.

Miss Mona Jean Megargel, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles E. Megargel of Waban, was one of three freshmen at Mount Holyoke College to receive the Foster Prize for Excellence in French. Called 'Best All Around Girl Troop In Newtonville'

"The best all-around Troop of Girl Scouts in Newtonville," was the compliment paid Troop I at its final Court of Awards of the season last Thursday by Mrs. H. Meserve, Newtonville chairman.

"Under the very capable leadership of Mrs. Ivan Geiger, Mrs. John Hyerle and Mrs. William Richardson, the girls have worked hard this year, earning an unusual number of badges, issuing a Troop newspaper, staging plays and winning many honors," said Mrs. Meserve.

Although Troop I is just one year old and composed of 10 and 11-year-old girls, it has won such honors as: The Circus poster contest, the Troop selling the most Girl Scout Circus tickets and the Troop with the most beautifully decorated booth at the Circus. The girls have also done the unusual job of passing the outdoor safety cooking requirements.

The program consisted of: An original play entitled, "Let's Have a Court of Awards and Cookout" in which the lead was played by Barbara Shapiro and all the girls took part; an Ishkabob cookout in Cabot Woods at which the Mothers of the girls were guests; and a Court of Awards.

The following girls earned Badges at the Court of Awards: Sara Geiger, Judy Richardson, Donelle Hyerle, Barbara Shapiro, Alice Livingston, Judy Hart, Donna Nedelle, Joan Norton, Anna Natsis, Lois Fleischer, Judy Galner, Marcia Huberman, Carolyn Kleinman, Marjorie Bluestein, Betty Brooks, Carol Brooks, Marcia Bentley and Millicent Collins.

"Chargoggagoggmanchauggagoggchaubunagungamaugg", Not Chaubunagungamaug, So 'Tis Told to Us

We'll admit we have our troubles and Edwin F. Brown of 78 Walker street, Newtonville, has kindly called our attention to one of them. In last week's issue we printed an article on "Central Massachusetts." In it we said the Lake referred to in the article was "Chaubunagungamaug," a 17-letter tongue-twister. But Mr. Brown has set us straight. The correct spelling of the lake should be "Chargoggagoggmanchauggagoggchaubunagungamaugg," a 45-letter word.

And if you don't think it is here is how the Lake received its name:

"Years ago, Indians used to live in this locality and they liked to fish here. The lake has three divisions; the upper, the middle and the lower. The fishing was best in the middle lake, but two tribes of Indians living at opposite ends used to dispute over which of them had the right to fish there. Finally, they decided to get together and make a treaty to settle the question. So they met and agreed that those who live at the upper end had the right to fish in the upper lake, that those who lived at the lower end could fish in the lower lake, but that neither could fish in the middle lake, which decision was fortunate for the fish.

"So they named this beautiful lake after the terms of that treaty. Chargoggagogg, 'you fish on your side,' Manchauggagogg, 'I fish on my side,' and Chaubunagungamaug, 'Nobody fish in the middle.'"

This story is accepted by the public generally as gospel, although there is no foundation in fact for the story, other than it was the work of a newspaper man. So you can decide for yourself whether the lake's right name is "Chaubunagungamaug," with 17 letters, or "Chargoggagoggmanchauggagoggchaubunagungamaugg," with 45 letters.

And we'll bet the linotype operator who sets this probably wishes whoever named the lake is now at the bottom of it, never to return, and he's probably wishing the same for us for trying to explain it all.

Contents There Is Real Danger in 'Witch-Hunting' To Suppress Rights

Stating that "the best bulwark against communist attempts to undermine our ideals and American way of government is to be sure that the Bill of Rights applies to all people," Rev. Ward MacCabe, associate rector of Saint Andrew's Church in Wellesley, at the annual meeting of the Newton Council of Churches held last Thursday night, pointed out that there is a real danger in "witch-hunting" to suppress the fundamental rights of citizens and to leave the door open to subversive forces by copying their methods.

He contended that a man is innocent until proven guilty and that every man accused shall have an opportunity to defend himself. "These are our inalienable rights under the Constitution."

Mr. MacCabe, formerly with the FBI and a member of the OSS in the China-Burma theatre during the war, traced the rise and fall of Chiang-Kai-Shek and said the real reason for the collapse of the China Nationalist government was corruption within Chiang's own family and not any lack of aid on the part of the U. S. A.

Edmund S. Whitten, 11 Owaisa road, Waban, a member of the Church of the Good Shepherd, was unanimous choice of the 200 ministers and delegates at the annual meeting to be president of the Council of Churches. Other officers elected were: Mrs. George Strandberg, 28 Howard street, Newton (Newton Methodist), vice-president; Ralph B. Emery, 15 Kenmore street, Newton Centre (Newton Centre Methodist), vice-president; Edson L. Fitch, 47 Oxford road, Newton Centre (First Baptist), treasurer, and Rev. Richard P. McClintock, Church of the Messiah, Auburndale, executive secretary for the third time. Jess D. Traylor, retiring president, conducted the business meeting.

The member churches represented by ministers and delegates at the meeting were as follows:

Auburndale: Centenary Methodist Church, Church of the Messiah (Episcopal), Congregational Church.

Newton: Eliot Church (Congregational), Grace Episcopal Church, Immanuel Baptist Church, Methodist Church.

Newton Centre: First Baptist Church, First Church (Congregational), Methodist Church, Trinity Church.

Newton Highlands: Newton Highlands Congregational Church, St. Paul's Episcopal Church.

Newton Lower Falls: Perrin Memorial Methodist Church, St. Mary's Episcopal Church.

Newton Upper Falls: First Methodist Church of Newton, Second Baptist Church of Newton.

Newtonville: Central Congregational Church, Church of the Open Word, Methodist Church, St. John's Episcopal Church.

Nonantum: North Congregational Church.

Old Age Survey

The Department of Public Welfare reports 950 recipients of Old Age Assistance, or 15.2 per cent of the number of persons 65 years of age and over, according to the 1940 census figures. Thus the number of Old Age Assistance beneficiaries in Newton is 152 per thousand of the population of 65 years of age and over. In June 1949 the similar ratio for the State of Massachusetts was given at 214 and the average for the United States was 231 per thousand. In Newton the same budget is used in planning the allowances of persons receiving Old Age Assistance and those on general relief who may not be able to qualify for Old Age Assistance because of lack of citizenship. The Federal Security Agency gives the following account of the persons over 65 living in Newton who received social security payments in 1949:

TABLE III Older Newton Residents Receiving Social Security Payments in 1949
Number	Type	Total Amt. paid monthly	Avg. per person per month

The number of Newton residents of 65 years or over receiving Old Age and Survivors Insurance in 1949 totalled 253 per thousand of this age in the population as compared with the average of 227 in Massachusetts and 158, for the country at large in June 1949.

The Department of Veterans Services has 25 elderly dependents of veterans under its care, receiving regular allowances, fuel, medical and nursing care.

Health and Medical Care Medical care for older people is ordinarily supplied in their homes by the physicians of their choice who use the Newton-Wellesley Hospital for surgery or acute illness. If new conditions indicate a readjustment of a patient's mode of living or the arrangement for more suitable surroundings, after hospitalization, the Social Service Department of the Hospital helps him and his family work out a suitable plan. This service is available to out patients as well as house patients.

All out patient clinics are by appointment. There is no special geriatric clinic at the hospital. Older people are found in larger numbers in the cardiac and genito-urinary clinics. Both occupational and physical therapy are available to hospital patients. The hope of the Hospital administration to develop a convalescent wing in city-owned buildings, previously used as a contagious ward, does not seem possible of accomplishment at present, as the city prefers to keep these buildings in reserve for use in case of an epidemic.

Convalescent or long term nursing care is now provided chiefly in the private nursing homes of Newton, Natick, Framingham or Waltham. The nursing homes are licensed for 2 years at a time by the State Department of Health after inspection for safety, sanitation and nursing supervision.

The Newton Department of Public Welfare pays from $25 to $30 a week for its beneficiaries in nursing homes. The charges to other patients range from $35, for a moderate amount of care, to $45 up for a very sick person. However, the homes are inclined to take a few very sick patients and several who are partially able to care for themselves, in order to use their full complement of beds and the available staff to their best advantage. Most of the homes take both men and women. It is difficult to secure nursing accommodations for senile patients outside the state hospitals.

The quality of care varies among the homes but it is said to have improved within the last 2 years and there is more adaptability shown than formerly in dealing with those who have patients to place. The licensing law does not carry provisions for continuing supervision between licensing periods but there is opportunity for revisiting a home on receipt of a complaint and the possibility of revoking the license if conditions are serious.

Newton is having the advantage of a Heart Demonstration program which is being conducted by the United States Public Health Service for the purpose of determining methods of helping to reduce cardio-vascular disease and to conserve cardiac function. There are various steps in the program. A screening process is now going on among groups of city and industrial employers with referral of suspicious cases to their own physicians for treatment. Later there will be opportunity for the general public to avail itself of this opportunity. Along with this process goes an educational campaign among doctors, nurses and social workers to acquaint them with the latest knowledge regarding heart disease, particularly with the relation to nutrition, rehabilitation and prevention. Ultimately this program should serve the older people of Newton through an improvement in medical treatment and a more hopeful outlook for the use of the later years of life.

The Newton District Nursing Association reports that 75 per cent of its bedside care is given to older people, mostly in visits of 2 or 3 times a week under a doctor's orders. A special rate is paid by the Department of Public Welfare for Old Age Assistance cases. Except for special treatments ordered by a physician, the nurses do not give personal care in private nursing homes. The association has a physiotherapist on its staff whose skill may be used for hemiplegic patients.

The Newton Tuberculosis and Health Association, 1357 Washington street, West Newton offers direct services in morale building, personal and vocational counseling for tuberculosis patients and a five year follow-up after rehabilitation. It is in this follow-up program that it is most likely to come into contact with older people. In its case finding program, more cases are found among men of over 40 years than in any other age group.

Personal Counseling and Services

The Family Service Bureau reports that in 1949 the problems of old age represented 3 per cent of its total case load. These are handled in the course of its general program of individual and family counseling. The service has often taken the form of emotional support in meeting crises or help in planning on health, housing or financial problems.

Newton has no organized homemaker service. This type of care is used in some cities, as a means of helping older people to remain in their own homes with the periodic help of a house keeper sent in to shop or do the heavier household tasks beyond the strength of the aged resident. In the year 1949, such service was given in Newton in 2 homes by the Homemaker Service of the Boston Provident Association. This service is available to the residents of Newton at a charge of $5.50 for an 8 hour day.

Friendly visiting to individual aged people in nursing homes is done by both Catholic and Protestant pastors in the course of their parish duties. Two years ago the Newton Council of Churches undertook a survey to determine the need for an organized plan of visiting the lonely patients in nursing homes. The survey confirmed the need for a regular service of this kind, and most nursing home proprietors seemed glad to cooperate. Since that time efforts have been made to organize such a service by two groups, the Red Cross Gray Ladies' Service and the Council of Church Women. Both have found it hard to secure volunteer visitors who will undertake to visit regularly. The Shut-In Society serves five Newton members by calls, correspondence or furnishing reading matter.

Employment

Among the business firms of Newton there seem to be none with positive policies for or against hiring older people. Among 45 manufacturing concerns listed by the Chamber of Commerce, 33 were thought to be unlikely to employ older people, either because they are engaged in operations that require provision of motion or because their work is heavy. Twelve more were considered as possible places of employment because of the nature of their work. However, the practical experience of the public welfare department shows that in spite of the favorable accomplishments of older people in industry during the war, there are less and less openings for persons over 55 years of age. Back of this discrimination seems to be a feeling of risk on the part of the employer which is not substantiated by the war records. The State Office of Employment Security reports that this attitude affects particularly the unskilled worker. Even though a request for workers often comes in with age limitations, it may be possible to place a skilled worker of demonstrated ability regardless of age, but rarely an unskilled worker. Such placements have to be made on an individual basis and do not affect the general attitude toward the older worker. The chances for older women are even less

DR. JAMES A. HALSTED, Chief of Medical Service at Faulkner Hospital, who has resigned to accept a hospital post in California, was tendered a surprise stag party in the form of a buffet supper by more than 100 associates and friends last Friday night in the cafeteria lounge of the hospital. Presentation of a farewell gift an engraved sterling cigarette case and lighter to Dr. Halsted was made by Dr. Channing Frothingham, former chief of the medical staff who is a member of the consulting medical staff now. Dr. Halsted is joining the Wadsworth Hospital, Veteran's Administration, in Los Angeles, as Section Chief on the Medical Service Staff, and has been recommended for appointment as Assistant Clinical Professor of Medicine at the University of California School of Medicine. Dr. John R. Graham of Brookline and Boston is replacing Dr. Halsted as medical chief at Faulkner beginning June 1.

Full Military Honors Accorded 1st Lt. William Edward Register

Funeral services for 1st Lt. William Edward Register, 28, Fighting Squadron VMF 115, U. S. Marine Corps, who crashed Sunday, May 21, in a jet fighting plane at Griffin, Ga., were held at 1 o'clock last Saturday afternoon, at the Church of the Messiah, Auburndale, with the pastor, Rev. Richard P. McClintock officiating. Burial followed at Wodlawn Cemetery, Wellesley.

Lt. Register was the husband of Mrs. Jacqueline R. (Harvey) Register, daughter of Mrs. Jennie M. Harvey, 346 Wolcott street, Auburndale, and Thomas D. Harvey, of San Antonio, Tex. The young couple were married by the Reverend Mr. McClintock on Christmas Eve, 1946, at the Church of the Messiah, Auburndale, and have since lived at Quantico, Va., Honolulu, Hawaii, Edenton, N. C., and Cherry Point, N. C.

A veteran flyer of the second World War, Lt. Register had served in the South Pacific. Born Oct. 9, 1921, Lt. Register was educated in his native Alabama and attended the University of Alabama before he enlisted in 1942 when he was 20 years old.

Chosen to represent the Marine Corps at the Armed Forces

Day air show held at Mobile, Ala., Lt. Register was returning alone in an F-9 jet fighter plane to his base at Cherry Point, N. C., when he crashed at Griffin, Ga. The plane was found the next day when identification of the dead flyer was made.

Mrs. Jennie M. Harvey, mother of Mrs. Register, flew to Atlanta, Ga., to bring her widowed daughter home. Personally escorted by Captain George Wineriter of Lt. Register's Marine Fighting Squadron, the body arrived here by train last Friday morning.

Full military honors were accorded the young flyer. Pallbearers included Major Malcolm Harvey, uncle of Mrs. Register; Major R. R. Amerine, Commanding officer of U. S. Marine Fighting Squadron VMF 115; Captain F. J. Larsen, Captain Fred Watts, Sgt. Cliff Swenson and Captain George Wineriter.

A military detail composed of marines from the U. S. Navy Yard at Charlestown provided a firing squad and bugler to play taps at the committal services at the grave at Wodlawn Cemetery, Wellesley.

Besides his wife, Lt. Register is survived by his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Lonnie B. Register, Atmore, Ala.; two sisters, Mrs. Todd Hicks, Jacksonville, Fla., and Miss Daisy Lee Register, Atmore, Ala., and one brother, J. V. Register, Atmore, Ala.

Funeral arrangements were under the direction of Henry F. Cate, West Newton.

Two Youngsters Injured by Autos

Two youngsters were hurt last Saturday in accidents involving automobiles. David Bloom, age 11, of 11 Carleton street, Newton, was injured when, according to a report made to Inspector Thomas L. McEnaney, he ran from in front of a parked car and collided with the right front fender. He was taken to the Newton-Wellesley Hospital and after an examination, was sent home.

Beatrice Anzivano, age 5, of 22 Mechanics street, Upper Falls, ran from the reservation on Boylston street into the path of a car, according to a report although the driver reported that he doesn't know whether his car struck the child or not. She was taken to a doctor for treatment.

West Newton W.C.T.U.

The regular monthly meeting of the West Newton W.C.T.U., will be held Monday at the home of Mrs. Ida H. Henley, 190 Ash street, Waltham. Mrs. Helen M. Merriam will be the assisting hostess.

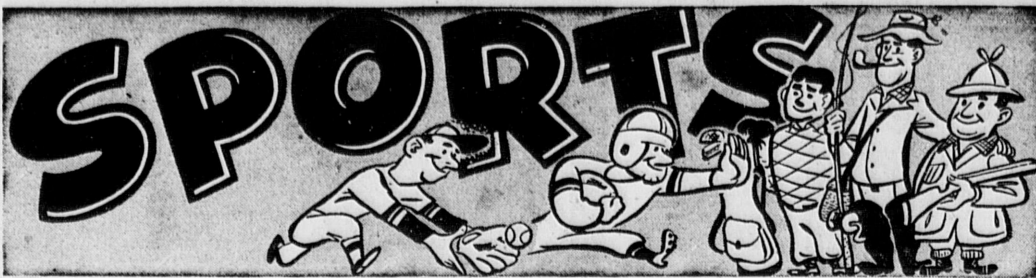

At this annual town meeting the election of officers will be held.

On a surveying expedition in 1884, William A. Burt, inventor of the solar compass, discovered Lake Superior near iron ore deposits when the iron caused his compass to fluctuate sharply.

Newton Is Second in Track Meet

Boston English High School scored 30½ points to win its first State outdoor interscholastic track championship in six years in the Class A competition at White Stadium, Boston, Saturday. Newton finished second with 22½ points and was followed by Medford with 15 points in a sixteen school meet.

The rivalry between English and Newton became all the greater during the meet when Bob Morrison of the Garden City squad was disqualified for fouling Gerry O'Leary, the Blue and Blue ace, en route to victory in the quarter mile.

Don Halloran of the orange and black, undefeated in the 220-yard competition all spring, finished third in Saturday's meet.

Alderson Kennel Leading Field

With 16 of the 100 racing days of Wonderland Revere's racing meet already history, let's take time out to see how the individual owners are faring. It isn't surprising to see that Highley Alderson heads the list with 15 victories, when you look at his kennel's roster. With Laughter and Refreshing co-starring for the Alderson Kennel and accounting for more than a third of the total victories, one can see at a glance why they are on top.

Pressing hard at the heels of the Alderson Kennel for the lead are the canine speedsters owned by James E. Boyle. They are only 3 wins off the pace being set by the Alderson aces. Unlike the Alderson Kennel there are no outstanding racers but the wins have been distributed among the entire kennel. The most consistent performer for the Boyle Kennel has been Ted Mack, who is being given good support by his kennel mates to attain their fine record.

Morley Lodge, Mrs. James A. Murray, Miss Deborah Davis, Miss Dorothea Murray, Miss Jean Gibson, and Miss Marjorie Phelot.

Our Lady's Girls' Team to Compete

A crowd of 25,000 is expected to attend the 19th Annual Competition of Bands, Drill Teams, Fife, Drum and Bugle Corps sponsored by the Catholic Youth Organization under the direction of Rev. George M. Dowd, at Boston College Alumni Field, Chestnut Hill, Sunday at 1:30 p.m. Our Lady's Girls' drill team will compete. In the event of a postponement due to inclement weather, it will be announced over Station WNAC at 10:59 a.m. that the contest will be held on the following Sunday, June 11, at the same time and place.

McHenry-Clifford Team Up and Top Commonwealth Field

Bill McHenry, an excellent tournament player for his handicap, and Francis (Spike) Clifford, 23 year old son of the former Boston golf writer Ralph, romped to victory in Commonwealth's annual member-guest tournament Tuesday afternoon when they tagged Leo Grace, State junior champion, and John Kosloski of Ould Newbury, 6 and 8, in the final.

5-Hit Pitching by Long John Thomas Puts Newton In First Place Tie

By JOE McGAFFIGAN

Behind the sparkling five-hit shutout pitching of Long John Thomas, Newton High's hustling nine edged Watertown High 3-0 last Friday at Victory Field, Watertown. The victory places Newton in a first place tie in the Suburban League with Watertown.

Both clubs now sport a league record of 7-2 and both have three games to play. Both Watertown's defeats have been to Newton.

The Tigers collected only two hits from hurler Joe Barry but they were aided by four free passes and five costly errors. Both Newton hits figured in the scoring whereas the Arsenal Towners' five bingles were well scattered by Thomas.

Newton first scored in the third, Leadoff batter Freddy Dauten, the Sophomore sensation, belted a long triple to right center and tallied on Buster Keyho's noist to center. As things turned out that run would have been ample for Howard Ferguson's talented nine.

John Zona lifted the lid for Newton's two run fourth by dropping Barky Boole's routine fly to right for a two base error. On Curt Fithian's attempted sacrifice, Barry threw to third in plenty of time to catch Boole but the ball broke away from Bob Charssooian. Boole stretched for the plate but shortstop Goggin, backing up the play, threw to catcher Stackpole who made the tag in plenty of time. Fithian reached second on the play. Barry then walked Rick Rycroft, Thomas, and Buster Keyho to force in a run. Pete Santucci drilled a single to center tallying Rycroft, but Thomas was nicked at the plate on a nice throw from Sabino in center.

Barry settled down to retire the side and set the Tigers down in order in the fifth, sixth, eighth, and ninth. In the seventh Joe hit Keyho on the arm but a back pole threw out Buster on an attempted steal.

This is the second time Thomas has shutout Watertown in his short baseball career at Newton High. Last year he tossed a three hit shutout to Coach Jim Ryan's nine.

VACATION TIME

The South Shore

Plymouth Rock, in most cases, is the first place that a South Shore visitor wants to see. The rock, the world's symbol of civil and religious freedom, now rests where the Pilgrims first stepped on it on that memorable winter day, December 21, 1620.

Plymouth Rock today is a shrine of national importance, to which people from all over the world come to pay homage. As the Massachusetts Development and Industrial Commission points out, one can not look upon it without realizing what the spirit, courage and fortitude of the Pilgrims represents to free men and women the world over.

Cole's Hill, overlooking Plymouth Rock, was the burial place of the Pilgrims who died the first Winter. The Sarcophagus on the crest of the hill was erected in their memory and contains the bones of many of them.

Other interesting spots in Plymouth include Cyrus E. Dallin's Statue of Massasoit, the exotic Brewster Gardens, Burial Hill which contains the graves of the early settlers, Pilgrim Hall in which reposes many relics of the colonists, and the First House, a replica of the first home erected on Plimoth Plantation which last year attracted more than 300,000 visitors.

A few miles north of Plymouth is Quincy, birthplace of two Presidents—John and John Quincy Adams. From the vast quarries of Quincy came granite for the Bunker Hill Monument over the first railway in America.

Inland is Brockton, great shoe city; Attleboro, one of the nation's jewelry centers, and Taunton, an inland seaport that once boasted more ships than any other coastal town.

South of Quincy is historic Weymouth and Cohasset which is famous for its clams, sea food and beautiful homes, Nantasket Beach, with its amusement part, supplies entertainment on a grand scale. In Scituate which is blessed with a charming harbor and beautiful shore drives, is the well which inspired the "Old Oaken Bucket."

Daniel Webster strode the ways of the South Shore, living in Marshfield where he was buried. Nearby Duxbury and Kingston offer much in Pilgrim lore. The lovely Myles Standish Monument stands atop Captain's Hill and the home of John Alden is nearby.

All along the South Shore coastline, ocean breezes cool the sunny beaches. Wherever the tourist goes, he'll feel the lure of the sea that drew generations of Massachusetts men toward the horizon.

Miss Ann Blackall Is Worthy Advisor Of Newton Assembly, Rainbow Girls

Ceremonies of the Newton Assembly Order of the Rainbow for Girls, were attended by a large gathering of parents and friends who saw Miss Ann Blackall installed as worthy advisor at Masonic Hall, Newtonville.

YMCA Movement 196 Years June 6

"On June 6, 1844, a little group of drapers clerks in London organized the Young Men's Christian Association. That makes the Y.M.C.A. movement 106 years old," Frederick Sayford Bacon, president of the Newton Y.M.C.A., said this week. "Superficially, it might seem that the 'Y' should keep silent about its birthdays, as accumulated years hold little in the way of popular appeal. Thinking persons will realize, however, that it is quite possible for an organization to endure for many years and still keep young—particularly one in which youth is 'of the essence.'"

"Vast changes have taken place since 1844, but through peace and war, prosperity and depression, the need of youth for encouragement, counsel and wholesome activities has remained constant. That is why the Y.M.C.A. has spread to 77 countries and continued to grow. Out of its ceaseless delving into the needs of youth over the years," Mr. Bacon asserted, "Have come many important social developments. Here in America the Y.M.C.A. has pioneered in organized work for city youth, for young men in the armed services, for boys, for railroad men, for students of universities and high schools. It has given us the games of basketball and volleyball, pioneered in boys' camps, launched the father and son program, and promoted the first national swimming and life-saving campaign. Still more items could be added to this impressive list."

Solidly rooted in the life of thousands of communities around the world and kept young by a continuous inflow of new generations, the Y.M.C.A., Mr. Bacon continued, wears its burden of years lightly and promised to add many more decades of increasingly fruitful service."

Old Age—

than for men. The Department of Public Welfare finds that this general attitude is forcing older people to receive public relief in spite of the fact that many of them are able and desire to work.

Recreation and Leisure Time Activities

The one organizational program for older people is found at Rebecca Pomroy House, 24 Covey street, Newton. It began with a small mixed group in 1947 and now includes a regular enrollment of 9, with 2 or 3 additional visitors. The club meets twice a week from 2 to 4:30 in the afternoon. The members play cards or other games, do handwork, and have a monthly birthday party. Most of them come from within walking distance of the house but one lives in Newton Highlands. As a group, they have taken museum trips and visited the New England Peabody Home for which they had been knitting afghans. Members of the group have developed an esprit de corps, as has been shown in their concern and friendly visiting when members are ill. There is evidence that this program is relieving tensions, because individuals have not shown in their club relationships the difficult personality traits that have been reported by those with whom they live. The group remains small in spite of varied efforts to let people know about it and there is room for a larger membership.

The adult club groups at the West Newton Community Center, 492 Waltham street, Newton, grew out of mothers clubs and there is a mixed craft group for women. Among them, there is only an occasional woman over 60.

There is a small nucleus of older men who participate in the activities of the YMCA or use its facilities on the same basis as men of other ages. They come in to read the papers, enjoy the lobby movies or the showers and attend the meetings of a serious nature. They compete with the younger men in chess or checker competitions, on the basis of their special interest.

The Library is conscious of some 25 to 30 older people who come into the library and stay for a good part of the day, passing the time with the papers and magazines while obviously enjoying the companionship. There has been no attempt to organize the group but it is indicative of the natural resource that is provided in the various branch libraries of the city. Only 3 of these, the branches in Newtonville, Auburndale and Waban have community rooms. The library serves the patients in some nursing homes through representatives of the management who come to select books for the group.

The Newton School Department has analyzed the ages of persons who have been taking the adult education courses this winter and reports that there were 45 persons of 60 years or over enrolled in these courses. Their interests were shown as follows:

Persons Enrolled in Adult Practical Arts and Handicrafts

- Dressmaking 1
- Tailoring 2
- Slip Covers 2
- Furniture Refinishing 2
- Knitting 5
- Rug Making 12
- Jewelry 2
- Ceramics 1
- Tray Painting 4
- Weaving 2
- Furniture Decoration 2

The building program of the School Department makes provision for a community room, in addition to the school auditorium, in new school buildings under construction or planned for the future. These are designed to lend themselves to the use of these facilities as community centers, with separate entrances and cooking facilities for social gatherings.

The Recreation Commission has been cognizant of the development of "golden age clubs" in other cities and would be interested to staff groups of older people if there is a demonstrated need, as it has done with a mother's club in Nonantum. However, there has been some question whether people do want to be grouped by age. There are a number of older people in the Community Chorus, Inc., to which the Recreation Commission lends assistance.

As far as is known, none of the churches have special groups for older people but, in a study of a sample of the persons of over 60 years, who were known to 6 Newton agencies, 7 men and 2 women referred to church groups of mixed ages as their recreational outlet.

Study of Eighty-six Older People

As part of this study 6 Newton agencies agreed to fill out a simple schedule of questions concerning a small sample of the people over 60 years of age who were actively known to them. Individual identification was not asked and the information was furnished by both voluntary and official agencies about 86 persons; 40 of them men and 46 women. Of the group, 74 were over 65 years of age and 50 were over 75. All of the villages of Newton were represented but nearly half lived in Newton or Newtonville. Almost half, 41 persons, were living with relatives or friends. Ten were living in boarding homes, 8 in nursing homes and 5 in institutions. The majority were able to go out, for only 20 were confined to the house. Sixty-four were not employed but there were 11 who were working full time and 6 were in part time employment.

For recreation, 12 were using the facilities of the YMCA, 9 were members of the club at Pomroy House and 9 looked to the activities of their church. One each belonged to a private social group for the blind and to the All Newton Music School. Twenty did not belong to any outside group and the informants did not know about the recreational interests of the others.

These informants were unable to suggest specific needs for 53 people, when asked what other service these older people needed beyond that which the reporting agency was giving. However, the few suggestions that were made fell into classifications similar to the basic needs that were emphasized in other parts of the study as is shown below.

In the study, inquiries were made at each point of contact on two points, the facilities and services available and the services needed. It is natural that the suggestions grew out of the experience and frustrations of the informants who touched the problem of aging from so many different angles. None the less, the suggestions reflect basic needs.

Needed Services Suggested

Health

- More facilities for chronic care 3
- Transportation to the hospital 2
- Preventive services in a geriatric clinic 1
- Provision for proper nourishment for those living in rooming homes 1
- A dental clinic for the medically indigent 1

Housing

- Cooperative housing project 3
- Funds to expand a home for the aged 1
- Visiting housekeeper 1

Occupation and Recreation

- Companionship and occupation for patients in nursing homes 5
- Companionship and new interests in a neighborhood group 4
- Visiting service for shut-in persons in nursing homes and in homes for the aged both tax-supported and voluntary 3
- Volunteers to man a visiting service 3
- Groups that will provide favors or entertainments at other times than Christmas 2
- A market for articles made by shut-in persons 2

Employment

- Employment opportunities for older people 1

Consideration of the Needs

There was general agreement on the need for more facilities for chronic care, particularly for senile patients who are not seriously enough disturbed to warrant commitment to a state hospital. Few nursing homes want to accept mental patients. Foster home care for aged patients would be a solution but experience shows that it should not be undertaken without as careful a selection of homes and subsequent supervision as is given to children. A geriatric clinic has, as its main purpose, the prevention of illness and therein is its chief value. Doubts have been expressed whether, in a city where most of the people turn to their private physicians, there would be a need for such a clinic. If that is to be the ultimate answer, there is still the need for a process of education among clients, how to use their physicians in this way, and among physicians, in the latest preventive techniques. It is the intention of the Heart Demonstration to move in this direction. While there are comparatively fewer persons living in boarding homes in Newton than there are in a large city, the problem of nutrition may be equally serious with the person who remains in his own home and plans her own meals with what is easily available because of a lack of strength to go out to shop. The answer to that might be the use of a homemaker service.

If more multiple housing is to be acceptable in Newton, a co-operative housing project might be considered as one answer to the long waiting lists for homes for the aged. Often the more independent persons on these waiting lists are found reluctant to enter an institution when they come up to the point of final decision. If planned and administered wisely, a co-operative housing may satisfy the desire for independent living while providing at the same time for the needs of older people for companionship and friendly oversight. Such a housing project should be planned wisely, or not at all.

Group projects offering congenial companionship and new interests have much to offer persons of any age. For older people they are medically and psychologically sound as they offer compensation for many of the losses that come with advancing years. There was considerable evidence in comments made during the study that too constant association in the small living quarters of today was producing family tensions which might be lessened by the development of independent interactions. The Stone Institute and Newton Home for the Aged is not unlike that of many of the charitable homes for the aged in this vicinity, few of whom can afford to expand their physical quarters or to care for all who wish to apply. Some are increasing admission fees and some are accepting new applicants only on a boarding basis, thereby bringing in a regular income which, with the income from endowment, more nearly meets the actual cost of care. The experience of the Home for Aged and Infirm Hebrews in New York has proved that the association of a co-operative housing project with an institution offering infirm care provides opportunity for a natural progression from the degree of independence which an older person is able to enjoy as long as he is well to the security and personal care that he needs when his health fails. Such a joint project is reported to be more economical of administration than a large contract home for the aged. The Stone Home might well look into these various alternatives.

Conclusions and Recommendations

From these facts it seems clear that there are needs and opportunities for service to older people in 3 major areas, in nursing homes, in housing, and in recreation. Accordingly it is recommended that the Newton Community Council appoint 3 committees as follows:

1. Committee on Nursing Homes

This Committee would have as its main objective a more satisfactory life for those under care in nursing homes, by working for good standards of care, by encouraging a friendly visiting service and the development of diversional occupation and by consideration of the practicability of conducting a clearing house of information about the homes which would be aimed at more suitable placements.

2. Committee on Recreation

This Committee would explore and promote the development of neighborhood recreation centers with programs of interest to older people, working in cooperation with the Recreation Commission, the School Department, the Library and the churches.

3. Committee on Housing

In its discussions the study committee explored and expressed approval of cooperative housing projects for older people such as have proved successful in New York. They recognize that such a venture requires an endowment such as is not available here at present. This committee will be available to consult with the Stone Institute and others who are interested to develop better housing facilities suited to the needs of older people.

The committee of the Newton Community Council which undertook this survey consisted of Clarence E. Churchill, chairman; Mrs. Raymond Alden, Council of Church Women; Mrs. Edmund Anthony, West Newton Community Center; Dr. Donald E. Bowen, Newton Tuberculosis and Health Association; Joseph W. Cheavaley, Newton Board of Public Welfare; Mrs. C. Azel Collins, Newton Chapter, American Red Cross; Mrs. Eugenia T. Need

HAZEL BAKER CLARK

When do I need you most, my dear?

Is it when household tasks claim busy hands but leave thoughts winging where they will? When a door closes and I raise expectant eyes longing to see you standing near, coworker in creative living?

It is when taut with cross currents of purpose I envy the restive bird soothed by the calming hand?

Is it during the perplexities of management that I need the business acumen of your masculine experience?

When I seek the very quality of being to help guide into potential angelhood uncertain youth?

When I feel the sting of rain or snow upon my cheeks, buffeted by the wind, I match my strength and glowing with the fun and exertion of the conquest, life tingling, I grope for your strong arm?

Is it in the lifting laughter of friends when I listen in vain for yours?

For the play of mind on mind in airy persiflage or thoughtful argument? Is it when architecture appeals, a painting gives a mood, a book claims inspiration, when music awakens longing, or nature claims homage, that complete enjoyment calls for your sympathetic appreciation?

Is it when life is burdened with the sorrows of another, when life weighs hard and all struggling, weary humanity is so closely akin that aching hearts seem to beat in unison?

Is it when in the press of the crowd, strange faces streaming past or in solitude so perfect a bird's chirp sounds loud?

Is it when in prayer, passive, receptive, humble, comes a reverence so awesome I would twine my fingers with yours?

Is it when house hushed, cloistered, aweary but peaceful with gratitude for many blessings, rest is sought?

Do You Know Massachusetts?

(Compiled by State Planning Board)

DO YOU KNOW THAT...

Efficiency of retail distribution in Massachusetts has increased more than twice as much between 1939 and 1948 as in the preceding decade, measured by the physical volume of merchandise sold per full-time employee, as estimated from the distribution census for Hampden, Norfolk and Worcester Counties. In 1939, sales per employee averaged 6.8 per cent more than in 1929; in 1948 they were 22 per cent more than in 1929 or 14 per cent more than in 1939. . . . When Massachusetts was first settled, about 91 per cent of its present land area was forested; by 1700 the proportion had been reduced to 81 per cent and by 1840 to 58 per cent, but by 1940 it had increased to 65 per cent and now is calculated at about 66 per cent. . . .

Claims for unemployment compensation in Massachusetts for the week ending May 6 totaled 144,464, a drop of 43,284 compared with the same time last year. . . . The Red Cross supplied the Commonwealth with 80,000 vials of anti-measles serum without cost during the 1949 fiscal year. The State health department makes the serum available to physicians free of charge. . . . Check payments in ten leading Massachusetts cities during the three months ending April 30 totaled $9,027,055,000, an increase of 3.9 per cent over the same period a year ago. . . . The towns of Canton, Nahant, Natick and Plymouth are among those which have recently adopted regulations controlling the removal of soil, loam, sand and gravel.

Although in medieval times knights wore suits of armor for protection, steel has played an even greater role in modern warfare by protecting the lives of soldiers with such diversified uses as flak vests, helmets, leg armor and protective steel shields for other parts of the body.

A—Since the two courses are in unrelated fields, you will have to undergo advisement and guidance by VA to determine your aptitude for, and need of, the new course.

Q—Does the age of the wife of a Spanish-American War veteran have any bearing on her eligibility for pension as a widow?

Newton Housewives Like Recipe News

Recently the Newton Nutrition Center distributed questionnaires seeking the Newton housewife's opinion on its regular monthly recipe bulletin, which appears on meat and grocery counters in stores throughout the city. This week the answers came rolling back, indicating that she likes it very much indeed, and wants the Center to continue with more of the same.
Instituted in November of 1948, the bulletin aims at improving the health of the community by publicizing recipes that are as nutritious as they are good to eat. Besides recipes, it also includes information on best buys and plentiful foods, nutrition notes on food values, and occasionally news about the activities of the Center itself.
Featured recipes in the May bulletin were Savory Veal Cutlets, Cottage Cheese Salad Bowl, and Grape-Nut Puff Pudding. Other months such dishes as Cherry Dream Cake, California Chicken Pie, Apple Dumpling and the like, have been favored. From time to time innovations on the make-up have been tried, such as printing the recipes card size to fit personal files, all of which stand or fall on the acceptance by the lady of the house.
Nutritionists at the Center, Miss Marjorie Cantoni, Mrs. Marie Barrett, and Mrs. Theresa Cedrone, the secretary, prepare and mimeograph over 2500 copies of the bulletin each month. These go to 13 grocery stores and super markets in nine of Newton's villages, and to the Newton Y.M.C.A. Considerable help in distribution is given by the Boy Scouts, under the direction of Wilbur J. Witty of Newtonville, Fred Garrison of Nonantum. Racks for the bulletin, generally located on meat or fish counters, were made by students at the Trade School.
Unanimously favorable comments on the questionnaire ranged from "It's wonderful!" to a more restrained "I think the recipes are excellent." However she said it, Newton's homemaker proved her unbounded concern for the health, through good eating, of her family.

Beginning their strenuous day at Newport with a 6:15 departure by bus from the High School, the Newton pupils gained an insight not only into the social and civic life of Newport, but also into Army and Navy life, and Naval training practice. After a tour of Fort Adams and a trip up the Bay in an Army boat, the pupils of both schools were entertained by the Rotary Club at famous Christie's Restaurant, where the chief speaker was Admiral T. Ross Cooley.

After attending a class at Rogers High School, pupils witnessed an ROTC review and later visited the Naval Base where afternoon tea was served before their departure. Highlight of the Naval Base visit was a demonstration of techniques now used in suppressing gasoline, oil, and other naval fires.

Salve Regina College, the Ocean Drive, Bailey's Beach, Redwood Library, the Stone Mill, Touro Synagogue, and Trinity Church were among Newport highlights visited before the series of pupil panel discussions on civic questions at Trinity Parish House. Immediately after the discussions, parents of Newport pupils served supper at the Parish House. An hour of informal relaxation ended the day's activities before Newton pupils boarded their bus at 8 p.m. for the return trip.

The original meetings between the schools in the Directed Field Activities were arranged through the American Junior Red Cross, under the direction of Mrs. Riley Hampton, Newton Chapter. The Red Cross has assumed responsibility for many details in arrangements and transportation, and has entertained pupils and their parents.

Sally Amidon and Arthur Shaw Are Co-Authors of Tribute to Missing Heroes

Twenty-four hundred boys and girls in English classes of Newton High School submitted to their English class committees, tributes suitable for inscription on a monument to the sixty-two Newton citizens missing in action. All the pupils had followed definite directions. Each tribute began with the words chosen by the Mayor's Committee, "In Reverent Memory of the Missing Heroes of World War II," and none of the tribute submitted exceeded the maximum of forty words.

After careful consideration every class sent a selection of three to five tributes to a faculty committee, composed of Miss Frances Thumlin; Mrs. Jean Wiens; George Nye; Floyd Rinker, chairman, and Harold Gores, superintendent of schools. This committee held several meetings before reporting to the Mayor's Citizens' Committee with eight tributes they considered most suitable. The School and Citizens' Committees met May 19 at City Hall, and after careful study, decided that the finest was a combining of parts of tributes written by two seniors, Sally Amidon and Arthur Shaw. They were told of 'the committee's wish and agreed happily to the co-authorship.

The assignment was not done as a contest but was carried out as a learning experience and a civic responsibility. The pupils considered their opportunity an honor and did their best in thought and feeling and were cautioned against the trite and hackneyed phrases and the thought that none of these men ever would return. These men are missing; they may be ill or lost but they are not known as dead.

Criteria for judging in the final selection were heartfelt sympathy for the families of the missing men, sincerity and humility of phrasing, originality without pomposity, avoidance of famous phrases and common platitudes, freedom from any sentiment that might reflect political or religious bias, and some expression of courage and hope for the future. The tribute finally decided on was:

In Reverent Memory of the Missing Heroes of World War II. Though they neither returned to share their victory nor to receive the honors of the dead, let a grateful posterity honor their memory.

Whitney to Seek Re-election

Governor's Councillor Otis M. Whitney of Concord this week announced his candidacy for re-election to the Executive Council of the Commonwealth. The Third Councillor District which Councillor Whitney represents includes Newton, Waltham, Waverly, and Weston as well as forty-seven other cities and towns.

At the present time, Councillor Whitney is one of the only two Republican members of the Executive Council who survived the Democratic sweep of 1948.

First elected by the legislature in April of 1946 to fill a vacancy, he was re-elected at the State elections in 1946 and 1948. In the present administration Councillor Whitney is serving as the minority member on the council committees on Finance, Pardons, Military Affairs, and State Institutions.

Long active in Republican affairs, he is, at present, treasurer of the Republican Club of Massachusetts and also a director of the Middlesex Club. He was a delegate from the Fifth Congressional District to the 1948 Republican National Convention.

Prior to World War II Councillor Whitney served three terms in the State House of Representatives, representing the 13th Middlesex District. Entering the U. S. Army in 1941 as first lieutenant of the Waltham National Guard Company, he served overseas with the American Division. He was discharged in 1946 as a Colonel of Infantry. At the present time Colonel Whitney is commanding officer of the 182nd Regimental Combat Team, Massachusetts National Guard.

Students in Inspection Of Bank

A two hour visit and tour of inspection of facilities of the Newton Savings Bank was made last week by eleven students of the Frank F. Carr School of Newtonville.

The tour was arranged by Arthur Gath, treasurer of the Carr PTA and Benjamin Louis, treasurer of the bank to enable the delegation to report to their fellow students details on what happens to the money they are depositing each week through a savings bank plan.

The students who were shown throughout the bank and explained the various functions of the institution were:

Linda Huling and Judith Simmonds of the kindergarten, Paul Sullivan and Ashley Campbell of the first grades, Bruce Corner and Mary Louise Burke of the second grades, Domenic Russo of the third grade, Thomas Stuart and Philip Baker of the fourth grade, Peter Conroy of the fifth grade and Jane Dahl of the sixth grade.

Mr. Gath of the PTA, which inaugurated the savings plan program at the Frank Carr School last fall, accompanied the youngsters along with Mrs. Dorothy Hunt, kindergarten teacher, and Miss Adelyn Vara, sixth grade teacher.

The tour was highlighted by an explanation of the exact procedure used by bank workers in assimilating the savings of the youngsters into the regular deposits of the Newton Savings Bank.

Another feature of the visit was a display of each type of U. S. currency from the $1 bill to one of the $10,000 demonimation.

Observe Memorial Day at H. School

Memorial Day was observed at Newton High School at an assembly for the sophomores Wednesday. The program included a brief history of Memorial Day; a speech by Robert H. Bean, president of the National Honor Society, concerning Memorial Day, patriotism and duties of citizens; a skit entitled "A Change of Heart," presented by the Neophytes, the sophomore drama club; the pledge to the flag; and the singing of the national anthem. Those participating in the skit were: David Coulter, Margaret Cushman, Marianna Murphy, Russell Nahigan, Sandra Narden, Berta Nigrosh, James Percy, Parker Pond, Diana Shulman, and Winslow Weeks.

The assembly program was only a part of Rededication Week ceremonies May 29 through June 2. The purpose of the observances is to arouse in Americans a realization of the opportunities and benefits offered by a democratic country. Other plans included the distribution of the booklets, "Good Citizen" in social studies classes. The booklet is an official Freedom Train publication explaining the rights and duties of Americans. Throughout the week classes conducted discussions and original activities.

The Rededication Week committee as-headed by Mild Clark; members of the committee were Constance Ford, Ina Friedman, Robert Gifford, Marilyn Greene, Leon Martel, Roger Masters, Sylvia Talley, Edward Tullis, and Bruno Visco.

Whitney graduated from Harvard Law School in 1933 and is a member of the Massachusetts and Federal Bars.

City's Debt Increases $2,335,000 During First Four Months of Year

The total debt of Newton has increased from $7,885,000 at the end of last year to $10,220,000 at the close of April, according to the latest debt statement of City Treasurer Archie R. Whitman. At the same time the city's borrowing capacity within the debt limit has dropped from $702,423 to $299,449.

In the four month period covered in the report, the debt within the limit increased from $3,934,000 to $4,656,000 and the debt outside the limit increased from $3,951,000 to $5,564,000.

Due to the retirement of bonds for the first year the Veterans' Housing debt dropped from $3,315,000 to $1,245,000.

Says Speed Cause Of Many Deaths

"About 28,000 traffic accidents occur every year in which at least one person dies," said Chief Philip Purcell of the Newton Police Department. "Some 9,000 of these accidents involve a speed violation on someone's part."

"Take it easy when you drive," Chief Purcell warned. "You might save a minute by speeding, but take a look at your life expectancy, as it stands now and then decide if it's worth gambling against that one, lone minute."

The Chief listed the following tips for Newton's drivers:

1. Heed both legal and common sense speed limits.
2. Slow down for curves, intersections, and any place where vision is obscured. Always be prepared to stop quickly.
3. Maintain control over your car at all times. Do not let yourself be lulled into carelessness.
4. Keep at least one car length behind the car ahead for 10 miles an hour of speed.
5. Avoid on-again stops and remember your responsibility to the driver behind when coming to a stop.
6. Keep the range of your headlights in mind at night. At some speeds it may be impossible for you to stop by the time your headlights warn you of danger.

Miss Cantoni Resigns as Head Nutritionist of the Newton Nutrition Center This Week

King Likely To Be Named Deputy Chief

Establishment of a deputy police chief and the addition of a second captain, as recommended by Chief Philip Purcell, were approved by the Board of Aldermen at its meeting Monday night under suspension of the rules.

It is believed that the new deputy chief position will be offered Captain Patrick J. King, who is the first on an existing civil service list for chief followed on the list by Lts. Charles E. Walker and Daniel E. Crowley, who, it is expected, will be ultimately named to the rank of captains, thus leaving a single vacancy in the lieutenant's roster.

The new lineup of the police department, as a result of the action taken Monday night, will have a Chief, Deputy Chief, 2 Captains and 3 Lieutenants instead of a Chief, 1 Captain and 4 Lieutenants, as now.

Wants Full Facts About Job Fund

The present critical situation of the Massachusetts Unemployment Compensation Fund should be a matter of grave concern to all employers and employees of the Commonwealth. The Fund is dwindling at such an alarming rate that jobless workers may soon be deprived of their full benefits under existing law.

Rep. Howard Whitmore, Jr., of Newton, together with Republican Floor Leader Charles Gibbons of Stoneham and Reps. Harrison Chadwick of Winchester and Francis A. Harding of Dedham, has filed an order in the House of Representatives in an effort to force the State Division of Employment Security to reveal the full facts in regard to the Fund. Rep. Whitmore has studied the problem over an extended period and has spoken before many business and civic organizations concerning the need.

Railroad Strike Off as President Truman Puts 60-Day Halt to Action

There will be no railroad strike today (Thursday) as was probable a few days ago as President Truman Tuesday night put a 60-day halt to the proposed strike against the Boston and Albany Railroad, which was scheduled to start at 5 a. m. today, when he appointed a fact-finding board to study demands of the Brotherhood of Railroad Trainmen.

The threatened strike was brought about by refusal of the railroad to accede to union demands for employment of an additional man to the present two-man crew operating the line's new single-unit "Beeliners."

Since the new trains went into operation May 1, the Brotherhood of Railroad Trainmen has been demanding that the road put a trainman as a member of the "Beeliner" crew as a safety measure.

Boston and Albany officials, pointing out that the new single-unit, self-propelled Diesel cars have been operated in safety with only an engineer and a conductor, rejected the demands and a strike vote followed.

The company charged the Brotherhood with issuing a "make work" demand and argued there was nothing in the contract with the Brotherhood calling for a third man on the Beeliners.

One Delivery Of Mail To Start Monday

Mail deliveries in the residential areas here will be reduced to one trip beginning Monday, according to Postmaster Francis A. Crowley.

He stated that it is possible that some persons normally receiving a mail delivery early in the morning may not receive it until some time later in the day under the one-trip plan.

This adjustment of mail service is in accordance with the curtailment orders of the Committee of Appropriations of the Congress made through the Postmaster General of the United States.

Shortened postoffice hours are already in effect and collections of mail from street letter boxes have been altered so that the last pickup is made between 6 p. m. and 8 p. m., nightly. This permits all mail to be received at the postoffice by 8:30 p. m., and distributions completed by midnight.

Robinson-Reddy Wedding Held In Second Church, West Newton

There were fragrant white carnations and stock on the altar of the Second Church in Newton, West Newton, Saturday afternoon, June 3, for the wedding of Miss Sigrid Robinson and Mr. John Michael Reddy, son of Mr. John Harold Reddy of West Newton. Tall candles gleamed in the chancel against a background of woodwardia ferns, and candelabra on the aisles were entwined with smilax. The 4 o'clock ceremony was performed by Rev. Clyde Yarbrough, assisted by the Rev. Rowland McLean Cross of New York, formerly of China, a friend of the bride's family. A reception followed at the home of the bride's parents, Dr. and Mrs. Hugh Laughlin Robinson of West Newton.

The bride, who was given in marriage by her father, wore an ivory satin gown with a yoke of illusion. The bodice was appliqued with lace and the skirt flared into a cathedral train. Layers of pleated tulle formed her headpiece, to which her mother's wedding veil of imported French illusion was attached caught at the side with fleurs d'amour. She carried a bouquet of fleurs d'amour, lilies-of-the-valley and stephanotis.

Mrs. Urban Turner of Melrose was the matron of honor. Her gown of white embroidered organza over green taffeta had a tight-fitting ruffled jacket and was sashed with green taffeta. She wore a matching green hairsheer hat with a net bow and carried a bouquet of mixed spring flowers. Miss Gudrun Robinson was her sister's maid of honor. She wore white embroidered organza over yellow taffeta with a yellow sash and her hairsheer hat was yellow.

The bridesmaids were Mrs. Charles Hubert Stem of Brookline; Mrs. John Dickinson Koblitz of Wayland; and Miss Joan Twaddle of Rochester, N.Y. Mrs. Stem and Miss Twaddle wore gowns like that of the matron of honor, and the other two bridesmaids were gowned like the maid of honor. They all carried mixed spring flowers.

For her daughter's wedding Mrs. Robinson wore a gown of brown nylon marquisette with a hat of pink tulle and brown ostrich tips, and a spray of pink orchids. Mrs. Reddy, the bridegroom's mother, was gowned in turquoise crepe trimmed with lace. Her straw hat was pale lavender to blend with her corsage of purple orchids.

Mr. Peter Edmund Michael of New York City was the best man, and the ushers included Mr. Charles Weld Robinson and Mr. John Stuart Robinson of West Newton, brothers of the bride; Mr. Urban Turner of Melrose; Mr. John Dickinson Koblitz of Wayland; Mr. James Edward Barber of Fairfield, Ct.; and Mr. Arthur Quilty of Jamaica Plain.

They will go to the Berkshires and then sail for Europe on June 9 for a three months' trip.

The bride was given in marriage by her brother, Mr. Edward A. McLaughlin, Jr.

The bride's infancy period gown had a full tunic of rare Spanish lace over a bouffant marquisette skirt and train. With it she wore a veil of French illusion and carried two white orchids, white carnations and stephanotis.

Her sister-in-law, Mrs. Edward A. McLaughlin of Springfield was the matron of honor and Miss Kathleen Kirk of Newton was the maid of honor. They were gowned alike in white organza over pale blue with embroidered jacksons and pale blue sashes tied at the side over flounces of embroidered organza. They carried small bouquets of pastel daisies to match the wreaths in their hair.

Mrs. McLaughlin, mother of the bride, wore a gown of navy lace and mousseline de soie with a sheer navy hat. Mrs. Nylan the bridegroom's mother, was gowned in cocoa lace with which she wore a matching hat.

Mr. Robert E. Bogart of Toledo, Ohio, was the best man, and the ushers were Mr. Joseph E. O'Connell of Newton, a cousin of the bride; Mr. Edward H. Conannon of Waban; Mr. Richard A. Johnson of Woburn; Mr. John F. Casey and Mr. Charles J. O'Connell of Worcester, and Mr. Eugene F. McCabe of Westport, Ct.

JIMMY STROOC with Mrs. James E. Farrell, Chairman Newton Red Cross Motor Service on his way to Children's Hospital for treatment.

Motor Service Here Needs Volunteers

When Motor Service first started transporting little Jimmy for treatment at Children's Hospital, he was in a cast from hips to ankles, and had to be taken in the Chapter ambulance with assistance from the Newton police in lifting him into the vehicle. For months he was transported daily. Gradually the cast was cut down and the visits tapered off, to twice a week, once a week, and now every other week. One driver, who has become interested in little Jimmy over the long period, now takes him for his visits in her own car.

"It's all in a day's work," said Mrs. James E. Farrell, Chairman of Motor Service, when asked to give a few examples of the types of assignments taken on by her drivers. The "day's work" for the past year mounted up to a total of 2942 hours given by 50 different volunteers who drove close to 29,000 miles. Other patients requiring special attention are those with multiple sclerosis, who are taken three times a week to a Boston hospital. Cancer patients have to be taken daily except Sunday for a 60-day period. Amputees also have to be taken regularly for prosthetic fittings. Leukemia patients must go daily including Sundays. Frequent emergency calls for blood for Newton-Wellesley Hospital must be covered promptly at any hour of the day or night. Last year 454 1/2 hours were spent on blood assignments, on which 3213 miles were driven.

When asked if Motor Service drivers (who must all be trained in First Aid) had ever had to officiate in delivering babies, Mrs. Farrell replied that they had not, but had experienced a few close calls, particularly during the war when wives of servicemen had to be taken to Chelsea Naval Hospital. When the drawbridge was up, drivers anxiously counted the minutes, but were always able to reach the hospital in the nick of time.

Meeting the D. P. ships Mrs. Farrell cited as one of the most interesting assignments. Frequently Motor Service is called on to take passengers with broken legs, etc., to the Boston hospitals, and occasionally transports longshoremen who are injured on the pier.

Day in and day out Motor Service carries on its missions of mercy. Drivers must get up bright and early in the morning to discharge their own household responsibilities and pick up their passengers in time for the early morning clinics in Boston. But when they see the little Jimmys getting better, and realize that they have played a part in a child's recovery, they know it's worth every minute they've given.

Motor service because of the multiplicity of its calls and the need for people to cover seven days a week and emergencies needs drivers! If you are free and would like to volunteer your services, please call LA 7-6000.

Miss Cantoni—

Chamber of Commerce Favors Meters Here

Meters in business sections of the city as a means of regulating the parking problem in the city are advocated in a letter by the board of directors of the Chamber of Commerce to the Aldermanic Committee on Municipal Parking and Meters.

The action of the Chamber of Commerce in making a decision on this problem was outlined in the letter which stated:

"The Board of Directors of the Newton Chamber of Commerce, by vote, has gone on record unanimously for the installation of parking meters in the business areas throughout the city, where in the judgment of your committee they would benefit the parking situation.

"Meters are the best medium yet devised to regulate parking, assuring all who have occasion to visit the business areas of an equal opportunity to share the available parking spaces."

Attending State-Wide Disaster Parley in Boston

Newton Red Cross and City officials are attending a state-wide disaster preparedness conference sponsored by the American Red Cross in Boston today. (Thursday) it was announced by Mr. Riley J. Hampton, Disaster Chairman of the Newton Chapter of American Red Cross.

Governor Paul A. Dever is the keynote speaker at the meeting called by the Red Cross to bring chapters into closer accord with various State and Community agencies and to strengthen already existing understandings. Mr. Hampton said. Among those who will attend the parley will be: Chief Corcoran of the Fire Department, Chief Purcell of the Police Department, Mr. Arthur Campbell, Building Commissioner, Douglass B. Francis, Harry Walen, School Department, C. Evan Johnson, Recreational Commissioner, Dr. Ernest M. Morris, Health Director, Mr. James P. Reynolds, Agent, Department of Public Welfare, Arthur J. Swett, Al Schiavone, Assistant to the Director of Public Works, Mr. Harold T. Filsbury, Director of Research, and mayors, police and fire chiefs. State Department officials and chapter and disaster chairmen of the State's 89 Red Cross chapters.

In view of the increased interest in Civil Defense, Mr. Hampton stated, the program will include presentations on how Red Cross chapters can cooperate with local government officials in connection with Civil Defense planning.

Among the specific subjects to be discussed at the one-day meeting in Gardner Auditorium State House, will be responsibilities and resources of State officials in disaster and Civil Defense. The session will be conducted by a panel of State officials headed by Joseph Laurano, secretary in charge of Civil Defense planning.

Other panel members will include Major General William H. Harrison, Jr., Adjutant General; John F. Stokes, commissioner of Public Safety; John King, president, Massachusetts Chiefs of Police Association; Dr. Vlado A. Getting, commissioner of Public Health; and William F. Callahan, commissioner of Public Works.

"The meeting," Mr. Hampton said, "will consider two main objectives of disaster operations—responsibility and aid during the initial emergency, and rehabilitation following the emergency period. The responsibilities of governmental agencies and Red Cross will be defined, so that, through complete understanding of duties and services, the most effective plans for disaster and Civil Defense aid to the people of Massachusetts can be developed."

In addition to Governor Dever, Mr. Hampton concluded, speakers at the meeting will include Ralph Bain, Disaster Service director for the Red Cross Eastern Area Headquarters, Alexandria, Va.

Peace and Freedom Group Hold Meeting

Last week the annual meeting of the Newton Branch of the Women's International League for Peace and Freedom took place after a delightful silver tea in the home of Mrs. John H. Bernhard of 26 Orient avenue, Newton Centre. Mrs. Louis F. Billings presided.

The group voted to give a scholarship toward the New England High School Institute of International Relations held each year by the American Friends Service Committee. Miss Eleanor Cougan of 32 Oxford road, Newton Centre, a student at the Weeks Junior High School, has been chosen.

A very informative talk on "News or Propaganda" was given by Mr. John H. Bernhard, world traveler. He stressed the fact that we must read all types of publications and then sift the facts before coming to any conclusions.

Frederick A. Perkins of 303 Cabot street, Newtonville, Seaman Recruit, USNR, a member of the Organized Submarine Battalion 1-2, has returned from a week end Naval Reserve cruise aboard the submarine USS Sea Robin which conducted diving and surfacing operations at sea.

The Half-way Mark

Flag Day, June 14, will mark the half-way point in the Independence Drive, and the Liberty Bell will have just about half completed its tour of Massachusetts.

Everywhere the bell has stopped, local committees have rallied around it and carried out an effort to make the community conscious of the need to sell these United States Savings Bonds. The advertising, all of which is contributed as a public service, has been superb, the publicity widespread, and facilities provided by the banks, post offices, and industrial plants for the sale of the bonds have been greater than ever before.

The workers have done their job. The Treasury has done its job. Labor, organized America, radio, television, newspapers, industry, magazines, advertising, including outdoor advertising, postmasters, bankers, and merchants have all been outstandingly efficient.

From here on in, it is up to the individual. America does not belong to the Treasury Department. Its function is to administer the nation's financial problems—problems which belong to each and every citizen of this country.

The best way to prove that we care about that ownership of America is to buy that Savings Bond now.

Politics being what they are you can expect government to be what it is.

Girls go to the beaches to see and be seen; men go to see and swim.

The modern world appreciates results but it is not interested in excuses, good or bad.

Laziness explains more failures than ignorance but the combination is catastrophic.

The trek of statesmen of the world to Washington can be explained by one word, "cash."

American soldiers all over the world would be better than enemy soldiers all over the U. S. A.

Advertising may not solve the businessman's problems but it will solve the shopkeeper's problem.

Independence in the search for truth and courage in stating the facts will do much to keep a democracy operating—and also communities.

This is the time of the year that the graduates solve the world's problems; they deserve commendation for trying, anyway.

Now that the swimming season is close by it might be a good idea for parents to warn their youngsters about dangers that lurk in the water.

Improved highways and automobiles have made it safer to drive but you can still get killed on the highways.

The world is moving so fast these days that the man who says it can't be done is generally interrupted by someone doing it.

Fellows who drive with one hand are usually headed one of two ways down the church aisle—some will walk down it; others will be carried down it.

While the government is preaching thrift to its people in order to sell its savings bonds, the government itself is spending billions of dollars beyond its receipts.

The one big difference between government and families is that government derives its funds from taxes while the family must depend upon its earning power to make a go of the establishment known as home.

When the Pilgrims broke loose from England and came to New England's rocky shores, they came for the avowed purpose of getting away from taxes. But alas, where can the Pilgrims of today go for the same avowed purpose?

Current Comment

With Curley Out of Governor's Race, Dever Can Relax . . . G.O.P. in State of Disunity . . . Adm. Denfield Might Run, Strength Doubtful

Now that ex-Mayor James M. Curley has returned home and announced his political plans, the Democratic leaders and particularly the backers of Governor Dever can sit back and relax.

Mr. Curley can and occasionally does exercise the privilege of changing his mind, but he was pretty positive and definite in his declaration that he will not be a candidate for any office this year and that he will support Governor Dever and the Democratic ticket next November.

A bitter primary battle between Dever and Curley would have been viewed with great glee by the Republican politicians, and if Dever had been defeated for renomination it would have come pretty close to assuring the election of a G.O.P. Governor.

Very rarely does a political party repudiate a sitting Governor in a primary and then go on to win the election. Curley himself succeeded in wresting the nomination away from the late Charles F. Hurley back in 1938 but then found the nomination wasn't worth much and lost the election to Leverett Saltonstall.

It now seems certain that Governor Dever will have only token primary opposition. The Republican strategists undoubtedly will see that someone runs against him to give the so-called anti-voters an opportunity to record themselves.

A man in any high office, whether he be a Democrat or Republican, invariably incurs the ill will of a large number of people, mostly because he can't or won't do the favors they ask. An experienced and philosophical politician of the stamp of Curley realizes in advance that he can't please everybody and doesn't try. Other office-holders learn the same thing by hard experience.

The candidate who enters the field against Dever in the primary will have no real chance of winning the nomination, but he will draw a certain protest vote on which the Republicans will seek to capitalize in the subsequent election.

But the G.O.P. at the present time is in such a state of disunity that one can't help but wonder whether its members will be able to rally effectively in the seven weeks between the primary and the election.

A few days ago a Republican political writer made the amazing assertion that the G.O.P. may concentrate on regaining the Lieutenant Governorship.

At this stage of the campaign that statement is not likely to strike a very responsive note among former Attorney General Clarence A. Barnes, former Lieutenant Governor Arthur W. Coolidge, Judge Frankland W. L. Miles or State Senator Edward M. Rowe of Cambridge, all contesting for the right to oppose Mr. Dever in November.

Some top Republicans are hoping that Admiral Louis E. Denfield, former chief of naval operations, dropped from that post last year after a row over unification of the armed forces, will strike out for the Governorship.

Admiral Denfield certainly acts like a man with politics on his mind, and it would be ironic if he did run for Governor because Mr. Dever helped to build him up in this area by offering him the top port job, which Denfield last week rather frostily declined.

There is a good deal of doubt in the minds of many observers, however, that Admiral Denfield would be any political ball of fire as a candidate for governor, and, of course, he wouldn't set his course on any lesser office.

With a few notable exceptions, admirals and generals are not looked upon with any great feeling of affection by ex-service men and women, and Admiral Denfield comes pretty close to being a symbol of the top navy brass. It is necessary to stretch the imagination to picture him doing much down-to-earth campaigning in a political fight.

State Senate President Harris S. Richardson has decided to be a candidate for the Lieutenant Governorship, and because of the publicity and attention he has received as the presiding officer over the upper chamber of the Legislature he undoubtedly will be a formidable contender for that nomination.

Richardson intends to withhold his announcement until the Legislature concludes its activities for the year, but it's possible that the legislative session may extend so far into the summer that he will be unable to do so.

On the basis of the returns in Tuesday's California primary, Governor Earl Warren is likely to be a heavy favorite for reelection to a third term over Jimmy Roosevelt in the Golden State next November.

Warren, who suffered the only defeat of his political career when he failed to carry California in the 1948 Presidential election, picked up a surprisingly big Democratic vote while losing the Democratic nomination to the eldest son of the late President.

The returns would indicate that either Warren has experienced a great upsurge in popularity in the last year and a half or that Jimmy Roosevelt's family name isn't producing political magic in the great State of the West Coast. In either event the result is likely to be the same in the November election.

It is quite possible that many of California's Democratic leaders regard Roosevelt as something of a Jimmy-come-lately and resent the manner in which he has tried to take over their party affairs after moving West only nine years ago.

Jimmy was one of the party rebels in 1948 when he joined actively and aggressively in the pre-convention fight to block the nomination of President Truman on the ground that Mr. Truman couldn't possibly win, and it is most improbable that he is looked upon with any great affection even today by the Trumanites.

Of course, the political picture in California may change with the expected additional outpouring of voters in the November election, and some of the Democrats who cast their ballots for Warren may shift away from him when he is carrying only the Republican label.

But at this writing and on the basis of what happened in California on Tuesday, son Jimmy is certainly facing an uphill struggle in his bid for the Governorship.

A good deal of interest will be centered on the attempt of the glamour girl of the Democratic party, Congresswoman Helen G. Douglas, to win election to the U. S. Senate from California.

As the Democratic answer to Claire Booth Luce, Mrs. Douglas never quite came up to her party's hopes. But the coming campaign will offer a crucial test of her ability to charm the voters. She will either go on to greater heights of public fame or drop into the obscurity of retirement.

Duty to Vote

Editor, The Graphic:

Have you ever heard an aspirant for a political office fail to stress the fact that it is the duty of every citizen to vote? I doubt if you have, and yet we know that thousands of eligible voters right here in Newton fail to vote at City and State elections. Some admit they never vote unless it's a presidential election. So is it little wonder that with the names of candidates for the September 19 primaries appearing in the press, we begin to give some real thought and consideration to that great group of citizens who haven't registered to vote in the fall elections.

You and I know that it is our duty to vote on election day. However, don't we have a duty to the unregistered voter, the young person who has recently become twenty-one, the newcomer to our city, to see that they do register at City Hall before August 18?

It seems to me that we as individuals do owe these folks the duty of assisting them in getting properly registered. This might not be necessary in a smaller or better organized city, but in Newton, it behooves us all to get the unregistered entered upon the voting lists and then to get them out to vote both in September, and in November. May we all begin at once to urge our friends, neighbors and fellow citizens, who have not registered to go to City Hall, any Monday through Friday on or before August 18, and become eligible to vote in the very important state primaries on September 19, and the subsequent state election on November 7.

Paul S. Rich.

Editor, The Graphic:

The Oak Hill District Improvement Association is opposed to the taking of land described in Petition 97,040 for school and school yard purposes, for the following reasons:

1. Area is not suited for purpose. The terrain is hilly and uneven and has an active brook centered in the contemplated development. Before the property can be made suitable it will require a number of new roads to reach the area from all directions; the brook will have to be covered; and because of the hill slope is likely to be a wet play ground area.

2. Area is not wanted by residents. Residents want a school and so does the Oak Hill District Improvement Association—but, not placed in an area that is not only not suited "naturally" for such a development —but, will dispossess at least one family who has lived there many years; will sacrifice beautiful irreplaceable trees that are an important feature of the area; and will needlessly encroach on privacy and landscaped gardens of properties facing on Heatherland road. A petition has been signed by over a hundred residents most closely concerned and there is unanimous opposition to this petition by this group.

3. Area has too other better sites. The Newton School Committee originally selected land now owned by Edward S. Haloran, situated on Dedham street at the corner of Walnut street—and bounded by Bound Brook road, which is close to the center of the school population to be served by this school. The area requires fill and drainage attention, but it involves no need of new roads (unless possibly a short extension of Heatherland road); no loss of green trees; no displacement of homes; no injury to already existing homesites. It is central to Newton countryside, Woolsey development, Shady Hill and Woodcliff roads, as well as the Charlemont section. It is more economic for the city to construct here where the terrain is level, accessible and centrally located.

Our second choice would be on the area abutting the Newton Highlands Playground, facing on cleared land on Dedham street, near corner of Winchester street. In spite of the proximity to the Hyde School, the erection of a school in this area would have the advantage of the playground being already existent; and the children from the Oak Hill and Charlemont sections would not have to cross the busy Worcester Turnpike, which is ever dangerous for youngsters. No new roads, drainage, grading, etc. would be required. The Oak Hill District Improvement Association prefers either of these alternate locations in preference to the site proposed by petition 97,040—and urges that the city reconsider the location of this new school site to one of the areas recommended by this Association.

Senator Lee Announces Candidacy

Senator Richard H. Lee of Newton this week announced his candidacy for reelection to the State Senate. He will complete his second term in that body on the expiration of the present Legislature. This announcement puts an end to rumors that Senator Lee would run for Attorney General this Fall. He has been mentioned by various columnists as a potential candidate for that office. In his announcement, Senator Lee stressed the importance of a Republican Legislature next year, saying that the next Legislature will have to re-district the State for congressional seats on the basis of the 1950 census and it is vital that a stalemate in the Legislature should be avoided if possible.

Prior to his service in the Legislature, Senator Lee was on the Newton Board of Aldermen, from which he resigned to enter the Service as an Artillery Officer at the outbreak of the war. He was in the service four and one-half years and was separated with the rank of Colonel. He lives at 206 Church street, Newton. He is married and has two children in the Newton High School.

In the Senate, Mr. Lee has served as Chairman of the Joint Committee on Public Service, the Commission on Interstate Co-operation, and special commissions on Workmen's Compensation and Public Health. He has sponsored bills for repeal of tax on oleomargarine, enacted in 1948, for denial of liquor license to so-called rubber sandwich restaurants, enacted in 1950, for an MDC swimming pool at Faneuil, enacted in 1949, to use proceeds of parking meters for improving parking areas, enacted in 1949, and for transfer of subway construction from the City of Boston to the MTA, enacted in 1949.

Senator Lee has also sponsored bills for the granting of exemptions on so-called unearned income in the State Income Tax, for merit rating in automobile insurance and for a statewide minimum housing code.

Women's Open Golf Event At Woodland Outstanding

An outstanding event in Newton the last week in May was the Women's Eastern Open Golf Championship which took place on the beautiful Woodland Golf Course.

All the leading professional women golf players entered, as well as leading amateurs. Thousands of interested golfers attended and they were rewarded by the fine exhibition the players gave. Everything was managed perfectly and, notwithstanding the large attendance on all three days, there was no confusion and no inconvenience for players and spectators.

Mr. Thomas Carty, the President of Woodland, provided every comfort for members, guests and players, and to him, for planning such a wonderful occasion, top honors are due. Mr. Ralph Hunt, who had charge of the tournament, left nothing

Top Favorites At Wonderland

Those who follow greyhound racing know of the exploits of such favorites as Rural Rube, Lucky Pilot, Laughter and other Wonderland greats, but how many have heard of the red racing lady, Eloise. Eloise hasn't any records or been nominated for the greyhound hall of fame but to many has attained even greater glory. James E. Boyle's female flash was destined to be retired from racing due to her poor record but due to a quick of fate was given a last minute reprieve. In the final days of the racing meet at St. Petersburg, Florida, there was a last minute scratch and Eloise was substituted. She proved to be a more than adequate substitute by winning the race. It was after this win that Jimmy Boyle decided to give her one more chance and bring her up to Wonderland for the current meet. Eloise's record to date hasn't been sensational, two wins in five starts, but it is a very creditable one.

Wonderland's racing secretary has announced that the quarter finals for the $12,000 Futurity Stake will be held on June 8 and 9. The event is known as the Belmont Stake of greyhound racing and is open to dogs whelped on or after June 1, 1948.

Suburban Title Goes to Watertown by 9 to 3 Score

By JOE McGAFFIGAN

After twice beating Watertown High during the regular season, Newton High bowed to the Arsenal Towners 9-3 in a playoff game to decide the Suburban League representative to State Schoolboy Tourney. The game was held at a neutral field, Boston College's Alumni Field, Monday. Besides being held to four scrawny hits by Joe Barry, the Tigers committed eight errors and played by far their worst game of the present campaign.

This distasteful finale gives Howard Ferguson's nine a league record of ten wins and three losses and an overall record of twelve victories and fifteen starts.

Long John Thomas started for the Tigers and pitched pretty well although he was nicked for Watertown's full quota of nine runs. They scored two in the first, two in the fifth and five big runs in the seventh, three of these as a result of Sam Sabino's home run to left field. John owns a classy five hit shut-out over the Arsenal Towners but they hit him Monday when the chips were down. John showed signs of his true form throughout the entire contest. He walked only three and struck out nine, three coming in the sixth.

Joe Barry proved to be more effective in the clinches than his left handed opponent. He struck out six and walked five.

Watertown scored two runs in the first inning on one hit. Lead-off batter John Zona walked and Jack Charshoodian singled him to third. Then, successive errors by Al Phinney and Barky Boole permitted the victors to tally two unearned runs.

Newton tied up the game in the fourth with two unearned runs of their own. Joe Landry singled and went to third when Jack Charshoodian threw wide to first on Boole's roller. Jack repeated his previous performance by throwing wide to first on Rycroft's grounder.

The turning point of the game came in the top of the fifth inning. After Joe Renzi singled, Phil Stackpole, hitting star of the game, lashed a routine single to centerfield which rolled through Curt Fithian's legs for a three base error and two runs for Watertown. In the seventh Thomas lost everything. The Arsenal Towners hit him hard and tallied twice before Sabino unleashed his three run homer. Newton tallied once in the ninth on singles by Boole and Sullivan. Coach Ferguson used two pinch hitters unsuccessfully in a futile effort to pull out the game.

Robert Bliss, who graduated from Newton High School in 1943, had a one-man exhibit of his paintings at the Boston Museum of Fine Arts early this month. Six of his paintings were sold, including one to the Museum, where it is now on display. There was an exhibit here in Newton two years ago.

Mr. Bliss was in the Air Corps for two and a half years, and then graduated from Bowdoin College in 1949. In the summer of 1948, he studied with Mr. Jay Connaway on Monhegan Island, Maine, and then with Carolyn Wyeth this winter.

sity for immediate and positive action in order to keep the Fund solvent. The order has been filed for the purpose of not only informing the public of the true and full facts but also to mobilize public opinion to demand constructive action.

A few simple facts serve to emphasize that a crisis will be reached in the near future unless constructive action is taken.

Taxes paid by employers in 1949 amounted to $46 million dollars which was the equivalent of 1.41 per cent of payroll. Employees make no payment, having been relieved of contributions in 1938. As against an income of $46 million, outgo or benefit payments in 1949 amounted to $115,249,142.91. Thus, expenditures were two and a half times income. The reserve fund on December 31, 1948 amounted to $175,342,712.73 as compared to $107,342,000 as of December 31, 1949. Benefit payments in 1949 were equal to approximately 3.85 per cent of the 1949 taxable payroll which is roughly $3 billion dollars.

The law provides that when the amount paid out in benefits in a six month period exceeds the amount remaining in the reserve fund, merit rating is abandoned and rates paid by employers are increased one-half of one per cent until the maximum of 2.7 per cent is reached. The Maximum rate of 2.7 per cent will be instituted commencing October 1 of this year. But this 2.7 per cent will be "instituted commencing October 1 of this year. But this maximum rate fails to provide a balance between income and benefit payments. From January 1 to May 27, 1950, benefit payments were approximately equal to those for the same period in 1949 — $41,000,000. Income for 1950 is estimated at between $80-85 million dollars which is figured on the increased payroll taxes instituted this year. Against this estimated income of $85 million, benefit payments will probably run between $100 and $112 million dollars. Assuming the lesser amount of $100 million dollars, this year's deficit will be at least $35 million, or approximately one-third of the amount in the reserve fund on December 31, 1949.

Possible solutions, depending upon the revelation of the full and true facts, might include one or a combination of the following:

1. Reduction in ratio of benefits to average weekly wages.
2. Prevention of successive maximum benefit periods in two different years.
3. Increase in minimum earnings required to be eligible for benefits.

4. Re-institution of employee contributions.
5. Stricter supervision and enforcement of eligibility provisions.

CHRISTIAN A. HERTER, JR.

Herter, Jr., to Be Candidate

Christian A. Herter, Jr., of 11 Sylvan avenue, West Newton, has announced that he would seek the Republican nomination as State Representative from the Fourth Middlesex District in Newton, comprised of Wards 1, 2, 3 and 7.

In announcing his candidacy, Herter made the following statement:

"For many years, I have been deeply interested in governmental and political affairs. Because of my education and training I feel I am prepared to undertake the obligations of the office for which I am a candidate."

"Ours is a wonderful city. In the past it has served as a model to be followed by other municipalities throughout the Commonwealth. To maintain this standard in these trying days, we need the vigorous leadership of younger men imbued with a desire to serve the best interests of the community."

"Politically, Newton has more Republican voters than any community in the State. It has held and must continue to hold its position of leadership in the Party. To the best of my ability, I shall try to give its citizens the conscientious representation to which they are entitled."

Herter is 31 years old, married and the father of three children. At present he is associated with the Boston law firm of Bingham Dana & Gould. He received his undergraduate education at Harvard, and graduated with honors in January, 1941. Immediately after graduation he volunteered as a private with the Yankee Division. Thereafter, he was on active service for five years, which period included fourteen months in France and Germany with an armored division under the command of General Patton. On being discharged in January, 1946, he had attained the rank of major.

Returned to civilian status, Herter studied law at Harvard, and on completion of his course he and his family moved to Newton to live. Since then, he has taken an active interest in community affairs. In 1948, he took part in the Newton-Wellesley Hospital Building Fund Campaign, and early in 1949 was Chairman for West Newton of the 1949 Heart Campaign. In the fall of the same year, he accepted the Chairmanship of the West Newton Advance Gifts Division of the Newton Community Chest. During the past winter, he was Massachusetts Chairman of the 1950 Heart Campaign. He is a member of Newton Kiwanis, and the Boston and Massachusetts Bar Association.

His political activities include the following: President of the Newton Republican Club, Chairman of the Activities Committee and Director of the Republican Club of Massachusetts, and for-

Day Junior High School

The Annual Spring Concert of the Frank Ashley Day Junior High School was presented to an audience of seven hundred people on Friday night, June 26, in the school auditorium. The orchestra, string quartet, the Girls' Glee Club, the Music Elective Group, the Boys' Glee Club, and two dance groups were the school organizations that took part. In addition several family groups, one member of each of which is now a pupil here, added to the festivities with their talented performances. These performers were grouped into a skit "Our Day Family" with Christian Jacobson as stage manager, Richard Birdsall as Peter Lawson, and Judy MacCreedy as Susan Grant, and Divisions 80 and 81 a choral speaking group. The family groups included Margaret McMurrer and her brother Louis; Janet Boudreau, her sisters, Jackie and Judy, and their father Arthur; Bruce Macdonald and his sister Carol; Rodney Bridges, his mother Ruth and pianist Alice Martin; Dolores Colella, her mother Evelyn, her father Michael, and her uncle Carmen. Lorraine Arcese, a Day graduate, was guest pianist.

The string quartet included Nancy Lamb, Dorothy Stokes, Gail Crosby and Susan Johnson. Eleanor Platt, Carolyn Jones, Mary Piantadosi, Arlene Babin, and Mr. John Eldert were soloists. Piano accompanists were Cheryl Worthen, Louise Oncley, Margaret McMurrer, and Carolyn Jones. Mr. Vincent Jurgielewicz, who conducted, was responsible for the training of all the school musical groups. Mrs. Annette Emerson trained and directed the dance groups. Miss Claire Dexter directed the skit "Our Day Family." A faculty committee under the chairmanship of Miss Helen Vaznaian did much to make this annual event a success.

Mrs. Lorraine Holmes helped with the planning and supervision of the whole production. The art classes directed by Miss Hattie Hinkley painted the realistic backdrops which added greatly to the pleasure of the audience. Deborah Harvey of Grade Nine was student announcer.

The pupil usherettes for the concert were Rosemary Geary, Gwendolynn Caruso, Joan Torri, Shirley Norcross, Madeline Seichlone, Annette Pilla, Dolly Pellegrini, Roberta Greco, and Margo Callard.

The Day Varsity baseball team lost to the Weeks team by a score of 12-9 last Tuesday afternoon, as the Junior Varsity also came out on the short end of a 10-3 score. Bill Hamill of the Varsity poled out a home run, a double and two singles. Don Veinot had a triple and a single. On Friday both Day teams bounced back in the win column, the Varsity beating Bigelow by a 9-2 score and the Jayvees winning from the Bigelow team 10-2. Tony Coletti limited the opposition to six hits while Don Veinot, Joe Del Gizzi, and Coletti contributed two hits each to lead the attack. Russell Halloran held the Bigelow Jayvees to five hits in the junior circuit.

Frederick C. W. Bray
Frederick C. W. Bray, 64, a leading proponent of cricket in this country, died last Saturday at his home, 16 Fairview street, Newton.

Born in Croydon, England, and a resident of Newton for the past 41 years, Mr. Bray was secretary for many years of the old Metropolitan Cricket League which sought unsuccessfully to popularize England's national game in this country.

He leaves his wife, Mrs. Louise Muther Bray; four sons, Frederick L., of Hingham, and H. Lewis and Charles A. Bray, both of Newton, a sister, Mrs. O. W. Savage of Seattle, Washington, and a brother, Horace Bray of Denver, Colo.

Funeral services were held Monday at 2 p.m., in the Newton Cemetery Chapel.

Harold S. Best
Relatives and friends of Harold S. Best in the Greater Boston area were saddened by his sudden death on May 19. His early boyhood was spent in Newton Highlands, until his family moved to New Brunswick, N. J.

A graduate of Rutgers University, class of 1911, he entered the army early in World War I. Following his graduation from a Field Artillery school in France, he was commissioned a 2nd Lieutenant in the U. S. Artillery, and served until the end of the war, returning to this country in 1919.

Funeral services were held May 22 at the Fullerton Funeral Parlor in Saugus and committal services were held in Ashland.

Richard C. Cooke
Richard C. Cooke, specialist on smaller business firms for the National Security Resources Board, died May 10 at his home in Newton. He was 55 years of age.

Mr. Cooke had been a member of the National Security Resources Board Office of Production staff since October, 1948. He had been assigned to the problem of relating small business to the overall mobilization planning program. During the last war he was New England regional director of the Smaller War Plants Corporation. In the first World War he had served in the Navy.

An "outstanding expert" on small business, Mr. Cooke made "valuable contributions" to the N.S.R.B.'s work. Frank M. Shields, director of the Office of Production stated, "Mr. Cooke had the confidence of Government officials and business and labor leaders," Mr. Shields added.

A native of Newton, Mr. Cooke attended Phillips Academy at Andover, and was graduated from Harvard in 1919. For many years he was president and treasurer of Bostonia Beverages, a bottling company at Natick, Mass. He was past president of the Smaller Business Association of New England and had been publisher of Industrial Teamwork, a monthly business magazine published at Manchester, Mass. He was a member of the New England Council, the American Legion and the American Ordnance Association.

Surviving are his widow Mrs. Eleanor G. Cooke, and a son, John E. Cooke.

Newton Officials Aid Reformatory Bill In House

House Bill 2404 "to provide work outside of the Reformatory for Women for certain inmates thereof," was passed through the House of Representatives last Thursday. This bill was the result of the efforts of the Friends of Framingham Reformatory to give Dr. Van Waters the help she needs to carry on her good work there.

During the debate, Representatives Margaret L. Spear and George E. Rawson, both of this city, spoke for the bill. Rep. Spear, from her long experience on the Public Welfare Committee, ably defended Dr. Van Waters and told how much this bill was needed.

Rep. Rawson told the House that the fine, conscientious work done by Dr. Van Waters in rehabilitating so many unfortunate women and girls entrusted to her care, had been for years one of the finest examples of practical Christianity that Massachusetts has ever seen, and that she should be given all the help she needs.

DR. HAROLD W. TRIBBLE, for three years president of Andover Newton Theological School, has been named as the 10th president of Wake Forest College in Illinois. He was unanimously elected at a meeting of the board of trustees which preceded the college's commencement exercises Monday.

Enlistments In Newton N.G. Open in June

Applications for enlistment in Company K, 101st Infantry, Newton National Guard unit, will be accepted during the month of June, it is announced by Capt. Thomas F. Hickey, company commander. Men of good character, 17 years of age or over, and who can pass the physical examination, are being accepted on three year enlistments for positions in the machine gun, mortar and rocket launcher sections of the company. There are also vacancies in the communications and transportation sections, Capt. Hickey announces.

Enlistments were closed on December 24, 1949, with the unit overstrength at that time. The losses of several men who have entered the regular services, one man who is entering The United States Military Academy through a National Guard appointment, and several men who have been given honorable discharges for business reasons, have created the vacancies.

Enlistments will close June 30 for an indefinite period, Capt. Hickey states. Applicants for enlistment may apply to Company K at the West Newton Armory any Monday night.

Fortieth Anniversary Year To Officially Open in Fall

The thirty-ninth season of the All Newton Music School will close this Saturday, for the summer recess. Fall registration will take place right after Labor Day, September 5, 6, and 7 for the re-registration of old students. Application of new students will be considered during the week of September 11.

The Fortieth Anniversary Year will officially open Monday, September 18, at which time instrumental and voice lessons will be resumed with orchestra rehearsals scheduled also during the first week. Classes in pre-instrumental music, theory and musicianship will start the first week in October.

The past season has been a very active and successful one at the Music School with a great many outstanding events culminating in the Annual Spring Concert held at the Newton High School on Wednesday evening, May 31. The concert was attended by interested parents, friends and out of town guests, who filled to capacity the large auditorium. A Bach Chorale by students of the string and wind departments, was followed by two young students of the piano department who played solos with their teacher Mrs. Stark, weather at the second piano.

Then followed artistic performance by six diploma students featuring vocal, piano, violin and flute solos which were all enthusiastically received by a most appreciative audience. These students were Elsa Marston and Lavinia Mayo, pianists, Frances Dorsey, soprano, Daniel Abbott, Eileen Carey and Carolyn Sanroma, violinists, and Benjamin Muckenhoupt, flutist.

The Junior and Senior orchestras under the leadership of Irene Forte and Mary Scipione did splendid work and gave fine support to the soloists in the several concertos for soloists and orchestra.

In the final number of the program, children of the Junior III Rhythm Band joined the orchestras and all played Brahms Hungarian Dance with real spirit and precision.

On the day of the concert special greetings came by air mail from Miss Elizabeth Effe, Founder and Director Emerita, who is on an extended visit to Ohio. This was the first Annual Spring Concert that Miss Effe had missed in thirty-nine years. She sent her regrets and a message of love and congratulations to all at the Music School.

Restriction Put On Use Of Water

It was announced last Friday, that last year's ban on water usage for lawn sprinkling in some areas of Newton would again go into effect as of that day. The water supply is sufficient, the city officials said, but the ban has been re-enforced as a safety precaution and to maintain water pressure in the Newtons. The following statement was issued by Water Commissioner Joseph J. Murray, and was approved by Public Commissioner Willard S. Pratt:

"To the citizens of Newton: While the city water supply is ample, the unusual weather conditions which have existed for the past few days have caused a water distribution problem during the daylight hours.

"In order that pressure may be maintained throughout the entire system, not only for household consumption but for fire protection, it becomes necessary to issue the following regulation: 'The watering of lawns shall cease at all times excepting between the hours of 5 a.m. to 7:30 a.m., and 9 p.m. to 12 midnight. 'Anyone who violates this regulation shall be subject to penalties to the full extent of the law.

"The above regulation shall remain in effect until officially rescinded."

Says Action on Old Age Petitions an "Example Of Political Cowardice"

Referring to the initiative petitions on Old Age Assistance before the Legislature, Senator Richard H. Lee in a statement this week termed the action of the General Court a "flagrant example of political cowardice by a group who were afraid to take any stand on these proposals."

Tracing the progress of the proposed petitions in the Legislature, Senator Lee said: "The circumstances regarding the initiative petitions on Old Age Assistance are most extraordinary. Two initiative petitions were presented. One of these called for a State Lottery, the proceeds of which would be used for larger payments to the aged. The other called for reduction of the eligible age. Under the Constitution the Legislature was required to act before the first Wednesday in June, June 7th. (Continued on Page 5)

Motion by Rawson Kills Bill to Tax Stock Dividends

Last week Representative George E. Rawson offered a motion to kill House Bill No. 51, the recommendation of Tax Commissioner Long to tax stock dividends as income. He was ably supported by Representative Howard Whitmore. Rep. Rawson told the House that over 70 per cent of the corporate securities of the country are owned by persons earning less than $5000 a year; in other words, people of modest means, including widows and retired people, whose securities are their nest eggs for the future, would be penalized, and that he did not believe the House would vote to add a 7.38 per cent tax to their already crushing tax load. Rawson's motion prevailed, and the House killed the bill by a roll call vote of 115 to 112.

Appropriate $6000 For Paul Brook Drain Area Work

The money appropriated for this purpose will also finance the building of a fence from Athelstone road northwesterly across the Weeks Junior High School playground.

"It Is a Skeleton of My Mother's Life Embroidered With My Own Ideas"

By JANET QUINN

One afternoon this week I went to visit a charming old lady in her equally charming Newton Centre home. She is Mrs. Anne Pepper Varney, whose name you are familiar with if you have noticed the window of the Norman Hall book store at 63 Union street, in Newton Centre, for on display therein are copies of her novel Annie of Grassie Lea. This is Mrs. Varney's first novel but her literary talent is manifested on every page of her book; her style reflects her great intellect and store of wisdom.

The novel although written as fiction is the story of Mrs. Varney's mother and her life in Bolton, Massachusetts, in the latter 19th century having been one of six children brought here from Scotland in 1843. Her studies at Mount Holyoke and her love affair with the Amherst boy who was later to become the president of Colby College and whom she married, make the story fascinating to young and old people everywhere, but especially to New Englanders. Mrs. Varney brings the reader right into the lives of the members of this rollicking Scottish family, with all the anxiety and humor of a typically Calvinistic background from which the younger generation was breaking away. As she says, "It is a skeleton of my mother's life embroidered with my own ideas." Mrs. Varney, wife of a patent attorney in Boston, has been abroad several times, once as guest of the King of Italy, and has lectured to many audiences about her travels. She has two married daughters, one living in Weston and the other living in South Portland.

DANIEL ABBOTT

Diploma Recital Is Presented By Daniel Abbott

Daniel Abbott, son of Dr. and Mrs. George N. Abbott of Newtonville, was presented in a Diploma Recital at the All Newton Music School, Tuesday evening, June 6. The young violinist gave an outstanding performance to a large and appreciative group of friends, relatives and musicians. The interesting program was as follows:

Quarter in D Major — Mozart
First Movement — Allegretto
Arioso — Bach
Waves of the Balaton — Hubay
Rhapsody in G Minor (Piano Solo) — Brahms
Romance — Svendsen
Russian Fantasy — Wieniawski-Ondricek
Quarter in G Major Op. 54 No. 1 — Haydn
First Movement — Allegro con brio

Those assisting in the program were Lavinia Mayo, piano, Irene Forte, violin, Mary Scipione, viola and William Bell, cello.

Dan entered the All Newton Music School in September, 1939, and he was just a little more than seven years of age. He became the pupil of Mary Scipione and under her guidance made exceptional progress from the very start. He took the regular course at the Music School including the classes in theory and musicianship, ensemble and orchestra training, was concert master of the Senior Orchestra during the school year of 1947-1948, and was soloist from the All Newton Music School at the inter-school concert of the National Guild of Community Music Schools at Brooklyn, New York in April, 1947, and at Carnegie Hall, New York in April, 1948. For the past two seasons he has studied with Emanuel Ondricek, well known violin teacher of Boston and New York.

In addition to being a talented musician, Dan is an Eagle Scout and was sent to Washington in February 1949 as the Outstanding Scout in New England. He is a member of this year's graduating class at the Newton High School and is a member of the National Honor Society.

In September, he will enter Oberlin College, Ohio, where he will major in music. He will take with him the best wishes of all his many friends who will be watching his further career with great interest.

The Path Lies Straight and True

Graduation exercises for the seniors of Newton High School are over. These students have received their diplomas and while it is true that many of them will go on to schools of higher learning, somehow high school graduations for all, seems to be the culmination of all happy thoughts of the future for have not these students in a dozen or more years, been chums, been friends and been associated closely and thus a bond of understanding cemented?

To these seniors may we say: the path lies straight and true. You will meet up with many obstacles which you must overcome. You will have your disappointments, which you must surmount. You will find a world which is confused and an element of intrigue, which must be crushed.

You are above all, an American. Remember that and don't forget it. Subversive forces are at work to undermine your country, your happiness and your freedom. When you meet up with those of this ilk, do not be persuaded in their way of thinking. Crush them and crush them hard for they would, by their efforts, take everything away from you which you, your parents and your forefathers have held dear for years upon years—freedom.

You will meet them, have no doubt. Look at them, judge them, appraise them and you will find they are utter failures and yet through their stupidity they would try and teach you a new way. Don't let them.

Yes, you have graduated. You will now take your place in life. make that life an abundant one, an honest one and a democratic one.

Remember, you are an American!

Congratulations NASP

Any doubts that the Newton Auxiliary School Patrol would not prove effective and an important adjunct to the police department should be dispelled. Here is a group of fine, alert women who have gone about their task with a seriousness and efficiency which is commendable.

Appointed to protect children from traffic hazards near the various schools of the city, they will as time goes on, prove a most desirable investment for the department and the city. More than that, if one is to judge the first reactions, the children have taken to them and have shown every indication that they respect and admire these fine women. That in itself, is more than enough to dispell any doubting "Thomasess."

Chief Philip Purcell is to be complimented highly for the creation of this auxiliary branch of the police department and he and his officers are also to be commended for the fine training which they have given these women prior to their actual participation in their duties.

We feel sure that everyone in Newton will join with us in congratulating these women for their splendid appearance, their evident desire to succeed, and their adherence to the tasks which confront them. That they will be successful in their undertaking, we have no doubt.

Current Comment

Former State Senator Mason Sears of Dedham is a man who doesn't think too much of tradition and custom, and he apparently thinks even less of the gentlemen who are seeking the Republican nomination for Governor.

Mr. Sears is resigning from the chairmanship of the Republican State Committee so that he may back a candidate for the G.O.P. gubernatorial nomination, and it is divulging no secret to report that except as a last resort he does not intend to support one of the contenders now in the race.

In his statement announcing his resignation from the State Committee chairmanship, Mr. Sears declared that there are "several strong candidates seeking the right to carry the Republican banner against Governor Dever in November."

They may be "strong," as he asserts, but they don't have too much appeal for him because he has been combing the political byways in his search for someone else, and at the moment he's trying to convince Admiral Louis E. Denfeld that he should train his guns on the Governorship.

Whether the outspoken admiral is flattered by Sears' efforts to persuade him to run is a question because Mr. Sears previously had tried to get a number of other men to do the same, and Admiral Denfeld was pretty well down his list of people he'd like to see run for Governor on the G.O.P. ticket.

Four gentlemen who definitely are unfattered are former Attorney General Clarence A. Barnes, former Lieutenant Governor Arthur W. Coolidge, Judge Frankland W. L. Miles and former State Senator Edward M. Rowe because if Mr. Sears thought very highly of any of the four of them he quite obviously would not be out trying to sell other people the idea of running against them.

Ordinarily, the chairman of the Republican State Committee sits back in a state of complete and detached neutrality while all interested parties battle it out for the G.O.P. endorsements and then supports the primary winners against the Democrats.

The reasons for that policy are obvious. A committee chairman who interfered openly in a primary battle could scarcely function effectively in the subsequent election. But those reasons did not carry too much weight with Mr. Sears.

He had his own set of specifications for the Republican candidate for Governor, and he undertook to find a candidate who would fill them.

His first choice was the late Congressman George J. Bates. It's beside the point now to argue whether Mr. Bates would have run had he lived. Sears insists he would have. Bates told the writer last January that he would not.

Next, Sears turned to Congressman Christian A. Herter who is regarded as one of the foremost congressional authorities on international problems and who told Sears that he preferred to remain in Washington where he felt his ability and experience could be utilized for his country's greatest good.

Third on Sears' political hit parade was Congressman John W. Heselton who politely declined as did Attorney Charles B. Rugg when the idea was put up to him.

One of the specifications prepared by Mr. Sears was a "new face." But he's evidently looking for someone who is hard to get. Even the most ardent supporters of Messrs. Barnes and Coolidge would hardly claim that their men would meet this test, but Judge Miles, who is stepping off the bench and into politics, certainly can qualify in that regard.

However, the energetic Mr. Sears passed him right by and keep on looking, particularly in the direction of Admiral Denfeld who talked himself out of the navy in the row over the question of building a super-aircraft carrier.

At one point Mr. Coolidge thought that Mr. Sears had embraced his candidacy. So did most of the political observers, but that only proved to be a false alarm.

At all came about after Sears announced that he felt the Republican State ticket should be composed of men from different racial and religious groups. Coolidge said the same thing when he announced his candidacy, and Sears then warmly applauded Coolidge's statement.

But just when Coolidge assumed that Sears was quietly taking a place on his bandwagon, Sears informed him that this was not the case at all and that he was still looking for someone else to run.

By this time Sears had offended just about everybody running for Governor on the Republican side of the political fence, and there were some pointed suggestions, particularly from the supporters of the blunt and outspoken Mr. Barnes, that it would be a very good idea if Mr. Sears resigned and concentrated on drumming up a candidate instead of doing so while chairman of the Republican State Committee.

Mr. Sears conceded quite frankly that there was nothing very neutral about him and that in fairness to the various contenders he should resign. He is now planning a more active and open drive to draw Admiral Denfeld into the field, and it will be very interesting to see how much success he encounters.

Some sound and shrewd students of politics suspect that Mr. Sears is wasting his time in his endeavors to get Denfeld into the gubernatorial contest. In the first place, they don't believe that Denfeld, with his naval background, would relish a political campaign, and in the second place, they are very doubtful that he could win the nomination if he tried for it.

Partly because of the activities of Sears and partly because of other reasons, there is a good deal of dissatisfaction within the G.O.P. at the present time, and tempers are running rather high. It wouldn't take much at this point to touch off a bitter row within the party, and it's possible that one may occur when Sears' resignation is accepted later this month.

"I Do"

It MAY HAVE BEEN but a decade ago, or it may have been far back in the "Twenties" . . . but sometime, somewhere, a young man stood in the soft light of a Junetime morning and repeated the words—"I do."

Since that time, he has fought—without interruption—for the place in the world he wants his family to occupy.

And it well may be that, out of the struggle, he has lost just a bit of the sentiment that used to abide in his heart—for success is a jealous master and exacts great servitude.

But not when the Junetime comes—and, with it, that anniversary of another June!

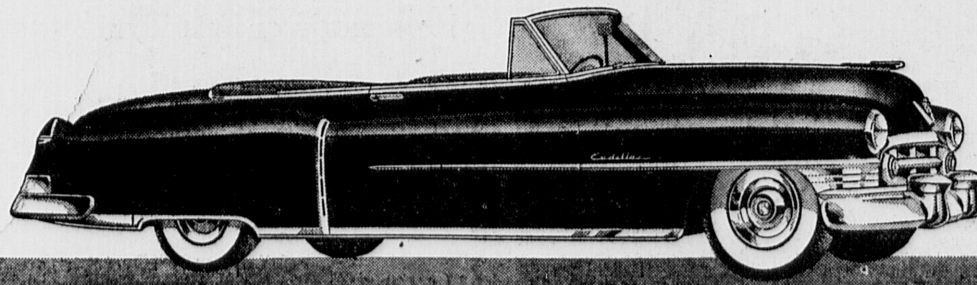

Then the work-a-day world, with its many tasks, is cast abruptly aside; and sentiment—pure and simple—rules in his heart once more.

And, because there are so many thousands of him, doorbells are ringing this June throughout America . . . and smiling boys in uniform stand, hats in hand, to deliver the proofs of remembrance. And along with the beautiful flowers, and the boxes of candy, and the countless other gifts, some of those brides of other Junes will receive the titles to new Cadillacs.

And, for them, there will be no other June like this—save one alone.

As your Cadillac dealer in this community—we've had long practice in the art of keeping secrets. Why not come see us today? You can trust us not to tell!

Heads Public Relations Committee

Arthur F. Veinott, of Newton Highlands, has been appointed Chairman of the new Public Relations Committee of the Newton Community Chest, according to an announcement made this week by Edward C. Michaud, President. The Committee is developing a program which will aim to get before the public on a year-round basis, Red Feather agency news and interesting stories and facts about agency services, using the media of newspapers, radio, and a Speakers' Bureau.

The speaking program will get under way in the fall, while it is planned for the newspaper and radio publicity to start this month.

President Michaud stated, when announcing this Committee: "If every one in Newton understood the great benefits derived by its citizens from the services rendered by our Newton Red Feather agencies, there would be no difficulty in raising all the money needed each year for their full support. Unfortunately, many of these agencies are obliged to reduce their programs and sometimes turn away people who need help because of insufficient funds to carry on their work effectively. There is a place for a Public Relations Committee in the Chest, and I have great confidence that through a year-round interpretive program this Committee will be able to help immeasurably the Campaign and, at the same time, our fine Chest agencies."

Working with Mr. Veinott on the Committee are Robert A. Chadbourne, of Oak Hill, who will be the Newton Publicity Chairman of the 1951 Red Feather Campaign; Mrs. Chester P. Baker of Newton Centre, in charge of special feature stories; Mrs. John S. White, of Newton Centre, Chairman of the Speakers' Bureau, and the following representing the individual member agencies: Mrs. Sylvester McGinn, All Newton Music School; Philip Ahlin, Family Service Bureau; Leo Barry, Newton Community Council; Mrs. Worthing West, Newton District Nursing Association; Mrs. Earl B. Bourne, Newton Local Council Girl Scouts; Wesley Sprague, Newton-Wellesley Hospital; Benjamin F. Louis, Newton Y.M.C.A.; David Hoover, Norumbega Council Boy Scouts; Mrs. Alban Rosene, Rebecca Pomroy House; Pierce J. Haley, Society of St. Vincent de Paul; Metcalf W. Melcher, Stone Institute; and Mrs. Arthur F. Williams, West Newton Community Centre.

Staff Members Are Attending Meeting

Some twelve members of the staff of the Newton Free Library are attending a meeting of the Charles River Library Club which is to be held at the Lamont Library of Harvard University today (Thursday).

It is an interesting fact that Mr. Phillip McNiff, Librarian of the Lamont Library, who will be the host to the meeting, was formerly on the staff of the Newton Free Library.

At the program of the meeting the speakers will be: Mr. Kelsey B. Sweatt, Mass. Dept. of Education; Miss Priscilla M. Mayden, chief librarian, U.S. Veterans' Administration Hospital, Bedford, Mass.; and Mr. John L. Sweeney, Curator, Woodberry Poetry Room, Lamont Library.

Lesley-Ellis Day Camp To Open July 3

Parents in this area will be pleased to know about the Lesley-Ellis Day Camp for little children on the Lesley-Ellis School campus at 40 Concord avenue, Cambridge. Sponsored by Lesley College which specializes in childhood education, the camp, starting July 3, offers an extremely interesting camping program for small boys and girls who, for one or more months, will be city-bound during the summer vacation period. The advantages of the day-camp are many, but the principal feature is the opportunity for the parents to have their children at home at night when little ones if away, are often lonesome.

Here is a wealth of fun and experience for boys and girls, four to nine, to learn the rudiments of summer camping as preparation for boarding camp when they are older. Crafts, swimming, sports, games, dramatics, music, parties, and trips provide a balanced, joyous, daily schedule — five days a week for either the entire eight-week session or shorter periods, depending on family plans. Children will bring their own lunches, but milk and special treats are covered by the $100 tuition which includes all extras except transportation.

Mrs. Patricia B. Smith, in charge of physical education at Lesley College, is director of the camp, and further information may be secured by either telephoning her at KIRKland 7-2218 or by referring to the advertisement elsewhere in this newspaper.

"The Committee on Pensions and Old Age Assistance held hearings on these bills well in advance of the June 7th deadline, and prepared a report. The seven Republicans on the committee signed an adverse report. Four of the eight Democrats signed a favorable report. The other four Democrats failed to sign either for or against. These reports were then filed with Clerk of the House on Friday, May 26th. The following week, on May 31st, when no action had been taken by the House, the chairman, Senator Evans (R), inquired why the House delayed to act. He learned that the Speaker had ordered the matters held up on the ground that four committee members had not yet voted. There is no requirement by rule or statute that all members must sign a report, and most of the business of committees is by action of a majority. In order to avoid delay beyond the deadline, the chairman then asked to withdraw the report from the House in order to submit it to the Senate for immediate action, but the Speaker again refused to permit the Clerk to give up the papers.

"By this means, both Houses were prevented from acting up on these petitions until Tuesday afternoon, June 6th. On that day, certain House Democrats by a series of parliamentary manoeuvres prevented the House from voting on the merits of these two petitions. The Senate remained in session until after midnight, but had no opportunity to act on them.

"This appears to me a flagrant example of political cowardice by a group who were afraid to take any stand on these proposals, and by intentional delay and chicanery prevented the other members of the Legislature from performing their constitutional duties. I personally am opposed to both proposals and would have voted against them had the opportunity occurred."

Hospitals-

kept by the Community Chests of Newton and Wellesley.

Almost 18,000,000 Americans were hospitalized patients during last year—one out of every eight being hospitalized. Our communities found 7893 individuals hospitalized (1463 newborn babies included).

Hospitals expended half a billion dollars more in 1949 to care for these 18,000,000 patients and, according to the American Hospital Association's survey, a new high of $3,500,000,000 became a new high for hospital expenditures during any one year. Boston-Wellesley Hospital's expenditures was $1,236,372.44 for the year 1949.

Patients stayed an average of 8.3 days throughout the nation while at Newton-Wellesley Hospital the average patient stayed 8.8 days. The average stay at Newton-Wellesley Hospital was reduced in 1949 .25 days or almost one quarter day less than that normally spent there in 1948. This was due in part to improvements in medical and hospital care. Because they recovered more quickly patients within our community can be said to have saved 1973 days in the hospital, Dr. Hamilton stated. This saving would have amounted to nearly $39,000 in the communities' pocketbook.

The total "book value" of American hospitals was almost $7,000,000,000 in 1949. Newton-

Wellesley Hospital possesses $2,158,575 as its general assets. In short term hospitals (except federal) each bed represents an average investment of $8255. However, new hospitals and additions built during the year 1950 will cost many thousands more than $8255.

Mr. Bugbee stated further, "We believe that the progress made in hospital planning by the states together with aid provided areas needing hospital facilities, through the Hospital Survey and Construction Act and the increased income being derived from Blue Cross and other prepayment plans will continue to be an important step in providing a better distribution of high quality hospital care throughout the country."

Steel accounts for 70 to 80% of the weight of modern Diesel locomotive units.

Another Red Coach Grill to Be Opened

Less than twenty years ago the first of what Jack Larkin is developing into a chain of Red Coach Grills was opened for business at the junction of the Connecticut Path and U.S. Highway, route 20, in Wayland, which is still a landmark for good things to eat. Other Red Coach Grills are now flourishing in Boston, Hingham, Middleboro, Hartford, Conn., New York City and Miami, Florida. Red Coach Grill number eight is now under construction on the Newburyport turnpike in Saugus. It promises to be the beauty spot of the chain—a show place. Adhere to the sound axiom, publicans of Newton in particular. Newton has always been able to nominate and elect candidates who believe in Republican party principals to represent it both on Beacon Hill and in Washington. I am sure we will continue to do so in the future. Any candidate who is not calculating to deceive the Republican voters of Newton can register as a Republican if he has the interest of the party at heart. No man can serve two masters, nor can he sincerely believe in two political parties. I am sure the Republican voters will not condone this practice.

"We never compromise quality." Jack Larkin's thick, juicy, tender sirloin steaks cut from corn-fed heavy steer beef for charcoal broiling after proper ageing are famous. State of Maine lobsters are flown in daily fresh for all Red Coach Grills.

"The Republican party welcomes all who believe in our fight for efficient government, especially in the State of Massachusetts. This condition has not existed under the present administration, with its many examples of waste and inefficiency. We urge that you and your friends register Republican at the earliest possible moment so that in this vital year you may assist in nominating and electing Republican candidates to office and continue the strong and capable representation to which our city has been accustomed over the period of years. Our heritage for outstanding Republican legislators is one of which the City of Newton can be justly proud. We of the Republican party must continue to nominate and elect legislators who will have in their hearts the true interests of the Republican party as reflected by their Newton constituents."

Twenty Women Traffic Officers Receive Baptism Of Their Duties Monday

MRS. ALICE AKERMAN, one of the twenty women traffic officers, shown guiding children from the Underwood School safely across the street at noon Monday. Assisting her in her duties is Patrolman Leo S. Gagnon.

Twenty women traffic officers received their initial experience of directing traffic near schools here when they went on active duty Monday morning under a plan sponsored by Chief Philip Purcell. These women will be assigned to the various schools of the city to guide school children across busy streets by motherly hands and at the same time permit patrolmen, now assigned to this work, to pursue other police duties. All of the new women officers are mothers, some with as many as four children.

This group, picked by Police Chief Philip Purcell, was selected from among 67 candidates. They include a war widow, a veteran, three wives of Newton firemen, the sister of two Newton policemen and the wife of a physician.

Those who were assigned to duty Monday morning were: Mrs. Rose Whelan, Mrs. Eleanor E. Smith, Mrs. Mona Nymman, Mrs. Anne Maxey, Mrs. Mary Williams, Mrs. Dorothy Fournier, Mrs. Helen Carroll, Mrs. Theresa DeStephano, Mrs. Margaret Hart, Mrs. Margaret Durano, Mrs. Thelma Adkins, Mrs. Alberta Morrison, Mrs. Katherine DiRusso, Mrs. Bertha Seymour, Mrs. Virginia King, Mrs. Caroline Blake, Mrs. Valerie Boynton, Mrs. Alice Akerman, Mrs. Clara Mitchell and Mrs. Wada Smith.

Known as the Newton Auxiliary School Patrol, the women will not be armed but they will have most of the police powers. The chief reason for the calling into service of the new women officers was to slow down traffic and bar dangerous parking in the vicinity of schools. They will work on school days from 8 to 8:30 a.m.; 11 a.m. to 12:15 p.m.; 1 p.m. to 1:30 p.m., and 3:30 to 4 p.m. For the few remaining days of school they will be assisted by patrolmen and when school resumes in the fall they are expected to take care of their work unassisted. They were given a week of lectures in first aid, traffic law and legal procedure and organization under the direction of Lt. Charles A. Walker prior to starting on duty Monday.

Monday the "policeettes" were assigned to the following schools: Underwood School, Mrs. Akerman and Mrs. Whelan; Lincoln-Eliot School, Mrs. E. Smith; Carr School, Mrs. Nymman; Cabot School, Mrs. Maxey; Peirce School, Mrs. Williams; Davis School, Mrs. Fournier; Franklin School, Mrs. Carroll and Mrs. DeStephano; Our Lady's School, Mrs. Hart; Williams School, Mrs. Adkins; Hamilton School, Mrs. Morrison; Hyde School, Mrs. DiRusso; Emerson School, Mrs. Seymour; Mason-Rice Schools, Mrs. King and Mrs. Blake; Ward School, Mrs. Boynton; Oak Hill School, Mrs. Mitchell; relief officers, Mrs. W. Smith and Mrs. Durano.

Looking smart and trim like the wartime Waves of the navy, they reported that they had little or no trouble from motorists. As a matter of fact, said one, some of the men actually looked meek when told to slow down for children. Without exception, they agreed, they were a little nervous, but they all loved the work. They all reported that they would return to the jobs next year if it is the same as it was yesterday. Needless to say, Chief Purcell, after a tour of inspection, announced that every one of the 20 women were doing a splendid job and he was proud of them all.

Charge Night Sessions of State Representatives Are "Carnival Jamborees"

Charging that night sessions of the House of Representatives of the Massachusetts Legislature were "carnival jamborees staged at large public expense," the Taxpayers Federation this week invited all the citizens of the State to attend any such meetings during the next week or two as the General Court presses toward adjournment.

Wares Cove Swimming Is Prohibited

The Newton Recreation Department has announced that the swimming area at Wares Cove in Auburndale has been closed. The State Department of Public Health of Massachusetts last week closed the beach area along the Charles River as a result of three successive tests taken by the Newton Health Department. The Newton Health Department has also ordered that the beach shall be closed and that no swimming at any time will be allowed.

Advise That Water Be Filtered

Newton residents have been asking the question, "Why has our drinking water been so dirty? And when is it going to clear up permanently?" Here is the answer, from Public Works Commissioner Willard S. Pratt. He says that it is due to increased velocity and reversal of flow. Caused last week by a broken pump at Newton Highlands, the dirty water was caused by measures to maintain pressure, such as the closing of the water gates on Chestnut street, West Newton, and Langley road, Newton Centre. Until all the silt in the pipes has been washed through, the condition will occur, so in the meantime, residents are advised to filter the water through cloth, or let the water stand in containers until the silt drops to the bottom. The water, despite its color, however, is bacteria free and safe to drink, said Pratt.

The city's water system, prepared to handle only 13 million gallons a day, is now handling 23 million gallons a day. This is one of the reasons for the ban on water usage for lawn sprinkling. The suggestion that the hydrants be opened to flush the system has been discredited because this would only increase the velocity.

The first of next year, the Newton water system is expected to join the Metropolitan District Commission system, and then most of its water problems should be solved. The new Huitman Aqueduct in Newton will be ready for water by July, but not until next year will the pumping stations be ready to supply the city.

Eleven New Teachers Appointed And Five Resignations Accepted

The Newton School Committee announced last Friday the resignation of five teachers and the appointment of eleven new ones to the system. Also announced were the retirement of Dr. Homer W. Anderson, former Superintendent of Schools, and Special Consultant to the Newton Schools, who will begin teaching at Harvard this fall; and the

"Come and see the fun you pay for," the Federation said. "Excellent seats are available in a comfortable balcony on a first-come, first-served basis."

The invitation, sent to thousands of citizens in the Commonwealth, was printed on the front cover of "Taxtalk," the Federation's monthly publication.

"Your own Representative may not be among those making a farce of the democratic process, since many conscientious members heartily disapprove of what goes on," the invitation continued. "But you should visit the State House to find out, inasmuch as all come up for re-election in November."

It added: "While the specific program has not been announced, the cast will be the same as last year when at all the performances there were such familiar acts as tap dancing, trumpet and concertina playing, book throwing, hat stealing, paper showers, barber-shop singing, necktie cutting and application of the hot-foot to bored and sleeping non-participants."

"A rehearsal which took place on a recent evening promises that this year's performances will maintain the usual level of crudity and irresponsibility, qualities which make it necessary for citizens to attend in person to see the show, since it could not possibly be permitted on radio or television under current standards of public good taste."

The Federation said that "last year the clowning was interrupted only long enough to vote away $22,000,000 of your money, to create hundreds of new permanent public jobs, and to increase the salaries of legislators $1000 apiece."

Scholarship Awards Total $27,750

Members of the graduating class of Newton High School this year were awarded scholarships totaling $27,750, according to a report issued by the Newton Public Schools.

Of the total, $8,400 came from local organizations and the sum of $19,350 was won by the students in competitive college awards.

Scholarships for members of the graduating class are awarded on the basis of character, citizenship, financial need, scholastic standing, demonstrated leadership, service and probable acceptance by the college or school of the candidate's choice.

Estimate 417 Pupils to Be In New School

There will be an estimated 417 children at the new Oak Hill School this fall, including the 257 in the district of the school and the 160 in the section south of Boylston street.

The classes at the Burr School will be smaller this fall if the parents of the 44 children who have been asked by the Newton School committee to change their children to the fine new Williams School agree to the plan. These people live on Auburn street, west of Woodbine terrace; Oakland avenue, Evergreen street, Charles street, Riverside street, Newland street, Johnson place, Bourne street, and Woodbine terrace.

The district of the new Oak Hill School is bounded on the west by Walnut street, Stony Brae and Danehill roads; on the southwest by Dedham street to the corner of Nahanton street; on the southeast by a line running from Nahanton street to the meeting of Dudley and Drumm roads; on the northeast by the Brookline-Newton line, to the corner of Dudley road and Boylston street. The northern section of this district could be considered as in the Hyde School District.

Governor Signs Bill Returning To Communities Authority for Issuance of Building Permits

Governor Dever on Tuesday signed House Bill 885, to be known as Chapter 534, Acts of 1950, which is designed to return to cities and towns authority over the issuance of building permits. This legislation is of great importance throughout the State, and particularly in Newton, since under certain conditions the City has been forced to issue building permits for dwellings that did not conform to its building code. Credit for the passage of the Bill is due the Oak Hill District Improvement which instituted the movement; to its then president, Malcolm Morse, who worked hard to make the public aware of the situation; to its past president, Henry W. Keyes, who wrote the Bill and later collaborated with Senator Ralph V. Clampt of Springfield in editing it; to our Representatives Howard Whitmore and George Rawson, and Senator Richard Lee, who shepherded the Bill along its way; and to many other organizations and individuals who registered their support on Beacon Hill.

Oppose Land Purchase for Parking

A proposal that the city acquire land near the West Newton railroad station for a public parking area met with opposition by the owners of the land and the Newton Taxpayers' Association at a public hearing held Monday night before the board of aldermen.

Former Alderman William B. Baker of 399 Walnut street, West Newton, stated that he has taken the train to Boston for many years and has observed the parking conditions on streets adjacent to the station. He contended it is practically impossible to find a parking space in the vicinity and that the two parking areas in the square are often filled to capacity.

A lawyer for the New York Central Railroad, George H. Ferndale of 61 Winthrop street, West Newton told the meeting that the company favored the taking of the land situated on the east side of Chestnut street.

The petition was opposed by Stewart C. Woodworth, Jr., of the Mayflower Furniture Company who stated that the company has made plans for expansion and that the taking would destroy the business.

Secretary Lorenz F. Muther, Jr., representing the Newton Taxpayers' Association, also opposed the project and stated that the present parking areas are not used to capacity. Continuing he said that the whole question of commuter parking should be studied further and the land in question may be developed for business and thus provide additional income to the city.

Safety Show To Be Held Next Tues.

Next Tuesday morning, June 27, the Paramount Theatre in Newton Corner will conduct its first annual free safety show for the children in the elementary and primary schools of Newton.

In addition to a sparkling western feature picture and selected cartoons, the children will be treated to very timely talks on safety during the summer vacation period by guest speakers who will include Mayor Theodore R. Lockwood, Chief of Police Philip Purcell, Thomas McEnaney, Safety Officer of the Schools of Newton, Inspector Joseph Murphy of the Registry of Motor Vehicles, and Mr. Warren Huston, Director of Boys at Newton High School and Assistant Director of Physical Education. Playground Advocated For Corner

The Newton Improvement Association and two school principals lent impetus for the construction of a playground in the Hunnewell Hill area of Newton Corner at an informal hearing before the board of aldermen Monday night.

President William B. Hopkins of the Association called attention of the meeting to a survey prepared by the group on playground development and introduced Julius W. Kohler, chairman of the playground committee of the association who stated that the children of that area want only what children of other parts of the city now have.

Harris A. George Cashman concurred with Mr. Reynolds' thoughts.

False Freedom

Newspapermen do not qualify as experts on education, and possibly neither do parents. Yet all have a vested interest in the school and the courses taught there.

A newspaper office, however, is a sounding board for public opinion and usually hears both sides of any question that is being debated.

Practically every week we have mothers and fathers drop in to talk over, among other things, their doubts about the educational content of the curriculum being given to the young people today.

Many of these visitors come under the heading of former teachers, college graduates and well-read people. Their complaint could possibly be summarized along these lines.

They have all arrived at the conclusion, after due reflection, that the type of "progressive" courses now given tend definitely toward a secular philosophy that is moving away from belief in fixed standards of morality and truth. As a byproduct of such trend, the parents affirm that the students arrive at an emancipated point where they feel their individuality is hampered by counsel and restraint on the part of their elders.

This progressive movement is not new. It was not new in the days of ancient Greece and Rome. We are selling our children short if we bring them to believe that the fundamental principles of morality must give way to the newest thought which is not new at all.

Talking About Bacon!

Comparisons of commodity prices in other countries of the world mean little unless they are related to wage rates. In other words, it is the ability of the workman to "bring home the bacon" that counts.

The U. S. Department of Labor has calculated the minutes of working time required to earn enough money to buy a pound of bacon in ten countries. It is a revealing example of the superiority of our living standards as against those of the rest of the world.

The average American worker works 30 minutes for his pound of bacon. His equivalent in Canada works 45, and in Great Britain, 53. In Ireland he must put in 96 minutes. Finally, the Soviet Union—that wonderful "worker's paradise"—is last on the list, with 466 minutes of work needed for the precious pound of bacon! The communist workers see bacon at long, long intervals, if at all.

In the United States we have a free economy. That pound of bacon is one of the products of a highly efficient, extremely competitive industry which can live and prosper only if it meets the need of free consumers. The fact that only a free economy can produce abundance for the masses of the people should never be forgotten.

We are inclined to believe that business executives may well consider going actively into politics themselves as a matter of self-preservation.

This editor, for one, is probably off-side in making any inquiry regarding the billions of I. O. U.'s now piling up in the treasury department at Washington. As long as no one in Washington seems to pay any attention to the growing depth of moneyless paper, this old fellow is probably unnecessarily disturbed.

Said the man to a psychiatrist: "My wife has developed an inferiority complex. What can I do to keep her that way?"

Now we know what makes a wild cat wild. Sixteen government bureaus are working against each other in efforts to save and preserve our wild life.

Ever get tired of newspapers telling about freedom of the press and free access to news? So do we, but eternal vigilance is necessary.

We cannot hold a torch to light another's path without brightening our own.

The trouble with some of today's smart children is that they don't smart in the right place.

Politicians talking about the "Welfare State" always make us wonder whose welfare, theirs or ours?

From a Florida paper: "Mrs. Geary said the final meeting will be hell, as usual, at her home."

Central government grows at the expense of local and state government.

Officials of the Fish and Wildlife Service in Washington are still trying to fathom a question they received in the mail from a taxpayer. It read: "How can I get help to open the overland cycle trade from the inland tide water of the Atlantic to the growth crest creed of the Pacific? I discovered the oval location of the growthst."

Dewey Not to Run for Governor of New York Lt. Gov. Hanley Considered a Weak Candidate Lively Fight for Democratic Endorsement

Governor Dewey's definite and emphatic announcement that he will not be a candidate for reelection next November will have far-reaching political effects.

One result will be to remove Dewey from the political picture as a possible candidate for the Republican nomination for President in 1952.

A second will be to increase substantially the Democratic prospects of winning the New York State Governorship.

Some of the political observers have been expressing the opinion that Dewey might move back into the Presidential picture in 1952 or 1956 either as a candidate himself or as a king-maker, supporting someone like General Eisenhower.

That's possible, but it's highly improbable. A Dewey going to a Republican national convention with that big bloc of New York votes in his pocket and a Dewey engaged in the private practice of law are two entirely different political figures.

Dewey never was very popular with the professional politicians in his party. They never really warmed up to him even though he was twice their party's candidate for President. It's doubtful that they ever got far enough through his reserve to find out what made him tick.

Next January he'll be stepping back into the role of private citizen, and by 1952 he may find himself in much the same position as the late Wendell Willkie who, after winning the Republican nomination for President in 1940, wasn't even invited to attend or participate in the 1944 convention. He was shunned and ignored, and he died a few weeks later.

As far as the coming New York State election is concerned, Lieutenant Governor Joe R. Hanley apparently is to be the G. O. P. candidate to succeed Dewey, and political observers offer a masterpiece of understatement when they declare that Hanley will be much easier to defeat than would Dewey.

Hanley is 74 years old. He is popular in upstate New York but is relatively little known in New York City.

Dewey himself is understood to consider Hanley a weak candidate and in 1946 tried to dissuade him from seeking reelection as Lieutenant Governor. Hanley brushed aside suggestions that he step out, and at that time Dewey said of him: "He is the nicest stubborn old man I know."

That's the man the Republicans will try to push into the Governorship of the greatest State in the nation. Dewey is said to be reconciled to his candidacy but not happy about it.

With Dewey out and Hanley a much less formidable opponent, there will be spirited competition for the Democratic endorsement.

Mentioned as possible contenders are Congressman Franklin D. Roosevelt, Jr., Federal Security Administrator Oscar R. Ewing, Judge Ferdinand Pecora and Judge Charles W. Froessel.

The man who could have the nomination if he wanted it is James A. Farley. But the old political mastermind couldn't draw the election day support of some of the New Deal liberals. However, he'll have an important voice in designating the Democratic candidate if he doesn't run himself.

That may well mean that young Roosevelt will be sidetracked if he decides to bid for the Governorship. Party nominations in New York are won and lost at State conventions.

There are no primaries of the type Massachusetts will hold next September.

Governor Dewey is an example of an able and honest administrator who can no longer afford to remain in public life. His health undoubtedly was a factor in his decision to retire from the Governorship. Dewey recently has suffered from an acute bursitis of the shoulder and from low blood pressure.

But persons close to him say that the impelling reason is that he is now 48 years old, that he has two sons nearing college age and that he feels obliged to secure his family finances by taking one of several law partnerships which would bring him an annual income in six figures.

It may seem strange that a man serving as Governor of our greatest and most populous State considers it necessary to retire from office in order to provide adequately for his family, but that's the fact.

Mrs. Violet Formento of Detroit was awarded a divorce after she complained that her husband had slept most of the 11 years of their married life. Well, at least he apparently isn't troubled by insomnia...

In a cross-complaint filed in a Muncie, Ind., court, in response to his wife's suit for divorce, Lee Beaty requested that she be compelled to stop throwing stones at his new automobile...

The clerk of Monroe County in Bloomington, N. Dak., pondered a letter from Walter Sadlick, an ex-serviceman who explained that he had got married so he could draw a bigger student's allotment under the G. I. bill. Pointing out that his benefits now were running out, Sadlick stated: "We would naturally like to abolish the marriage"...

Arrested in a theatre holdup in El Paso, Hugh Burchfiel told a radio audience that he became a robber by being lucky and having faith...

Postmaster George W. McIntyre of Grafton, N. Dak., received a letter addressed to the chief of the Communist Party in his community. He returned it to the sender, Richard Rolnick of Pfaffenhofen, Germany, with a note which read: "We had a little ring rot in the potatoes, the snow is up to our belts, the water is up to our necks, and we expect a mild infestation of grasshoppers. But, thank heaven, we have been unable to find a Communist"...

at City Hall any day, Monday through Friday, 9 a.m. to 5 p.m. The price of these permits is 25c. No person is admitted to the bathhouse without a permit.

The swimming period for any person is restricted to one hour due to the heavy use of this swimming area. Violation of this regulation may lead to a suspension of permits.

Individual lockers are provided for storage of clothing during the swimming period. In order to protect your property, all lockers should be securely locked when you leave for the beach.

The swimming area is restricted by the installation of booms at the outer extremity of the area. No person is authorized to swim outside the booms. The booms under no conditions may be used as an anchor for boats.

Beginners are restricted to the immediate beach area and no persons are allowed outside the first enclosure until they have satisfactorily passed swimmers' tests.

Beach and play equipment for children is prohibited because of heavy use at the beach area.

No persons are allowed to bring lunches to be eaten at the beach because of the restricted beach area and the impossibility of providing facilities for the eating of such lunches.

Loitering on or about the beach is prohibited.

There is only one entrance to the swimming area. That is by way of Rogers street. Trespassing on a railroad right-of-way is illegal and the New York Central Railroad police and City of Newton police have a standing authorization to pick up swimming permits of any persons who violate these regulations.

Swimming is not allowed at other city-owned land along the beach area, as these areas are not supervised.

Owners of abutting property on Crystal Lake are reminded that it is their responsibility when other persons use their property as a beach area, and in no case should abutters allow the free use of their property as a beach, and they should take every precaution to restrict their own use to a very limited, safe area.

The bathhouse is in good condition. It is clean, well lighted, properly equipped and has continual maintenance throughout the summer. Showers and foot baths are provided in the bathhouse for use after swimming. Develop the habit of using these facilities regularly. Athletes foot, although not a serious ailment, can create much discomfort.

Some safety rules in regard to swimming are always necessary such as:

1. Limit the amount of your swimming. Over-exertion in the beginning of the season can lead to difficulties.
2. Select a buddy; do your swimming with him or her.
3. Do not take chances. Swim-

Has Right to Seek Both Nominations

Editor, Newton Graphic:

I like to remind you that there are those within our city and state that do not relish being classified as being a strict party voter, and it is on those lines that I seek nomination for state senator. That is why we most always have a shift in party control in the State House every two years, and I think that this is a good thing to curtail stagnation within our own legislative citadel. If every one believed that there was only one party that should hold the controlling reins of government, then we would be no better off than the political forces that worked overtime during the Nazi and Fascist rules in Central Europe.

In regard to a former senatorial candidate's remarks I can only repeat the old adage that confronted the greatest of masters, Christ. When Our Lord was confronted by certain of the select few He was tricked into answering a riddle concerning the service to two masters, the Lord and John H. Sheridan and Inspector David H. Kerry, Jr., investigated this burglary.

Giles Powers, 16 Ricker road, Newton Centre, and Bruce MacDonald, 960 Beacon street, Newton Centre, both reported thefts at the Crystal Lake Locker Rooms Saturday; the one of a $40 wrist watch, the other of $150. David H. Kerry, Jr., reported the theft of his son's black and red bicycle between 9:30 a. m. and noon Saturday in the vicinity of 297 Centre street. William M. McGrath, 243 Cherry street, West Newton, said that his maroon bicycle, worth $25 had been stolen near St. Bernard's Church, West Newton, sometime Saturday. A red tricycle, with balloon tires, valued at $28, was reported stolen Saturday by Charles Segal, 32 Rowe street, Auburndale.

4. Do not participate in horseplay on the rafts or in the water, and particularly do not approach another swimmer without that swimmer's knowing your presence.

5. Report to the Swimming Supervisor or Matron for treatment of any cuts or bruises that may occur.

The staff consists of: Dexter Linton, Supervisor of Beach and Bathhouse; Oliver Cavanaugh, Evening Supervisor; Francis McQueeney, and William Pucciarelli, office clerks, and Mrs. Anna Wilson, Matron.

The lifeguards are: Allen Wilson, John Higgins, William Waters, John Walsh, Richard Nugent, Giles Thredgold, Harold Martin, and Hart deC. Peterson.

Letters to The Editor

wered these gentlemen thus; have you a piece of money that I may borrow. Perplexed by this odd offer, the gentlemen gladly furnished Jesus with a shekel bearing the image of Caesar upon it. Upon receiving the coin Christ said unto these wise gentlemen, see this piece of money, and they replied yes, and Christ said unto them, whose image is contained hereon, and they answered, Caesar's of course. Well answered said Our Lord, we are all burdened with this image of Caesar upon our currency, therefore, I say unto you that you should render unto Caesar the things that are Caesar's and unto God the things that are our God's. Therefore, I could most sincerely cite that one may most willingly serve two masters because if one is so willed and is so willed within the law and executes this will he may, therefore, render unto the law the things that are in keeping with the law, and the things that are the will of the people within the will of these people. I, therefore, repeat that as long as it is within the law, it is legal to seek both party nominations in the state primaries and it is legal for a candidate to render unto the party the things that are theirs and unto the voters the things that are theirs. We must above all not forget that it is better to have rendered actions that are for the people whether carried thru the portals of a Democratic or a Republican party, which is only a social collective means of achieving goals that have been advocated.

May the best candidate win in the primaries, that are provided for the selection of an individual that is chosen to render his or her services unto the people and unto the party whose nomination he or she has sought.

GORDON L. HAWES,
Candidate for State Senator.

Amendments Kill Bill

Editor, Newton Graphic:

S-207 which was killed by the State Senate last week concerns the matter of physical examination of school children. It arose out of a two-year study of public health matters. Briefly, the bill provides for a thorough examination of all public school pupils every three or four years, with a permanent record for the information of teachers and parents.

At the present time all school children are required to be examined each year. No exemptions are allowed by law on any grounds. Because of limited funds and limited time on the part of school physicians, these examinations are very cursory in most communities. Our study developed the fact that such examinations are of little value as far as the minor diseases of childhood are concerned, mumps, measles, whooping cough, etc. Their greatest potential value is in discovering certain deficiencies and latent diseases, for example, curvature of the spine, defective hearing, infected tonsils and latent tuberculosis.

In order to avoid saddling the communities with extra expense, S-207 was designed to permit more careful examinations, spaced at intervals of three or four years, with the teachers assisting the school physician in giving some of the tests of sight and hearing. A permanent record would then be kept for the guidance of teachers and parents, and allowance could be made for defects of eyeright or hearing in classroom arrangements, or for physical defects in gymnasium and play periods.

The bill as written was extensively amended. In the House of Representatives an amendment was added (on motion of Sullivan (D) to extend the provisions to all children of compulsory school age, thus taking in not only children in private and parochial schools, but crippled or invalid children, who are tutored at home and those in State institutions. It was further amended by Gibbons (R) to provide that children could be examined by their own physician and his certificate would excuse them from examination at school. It was amended by Rawson (R) to provide for exemption on religious grounds if any parent so requested in writing (provided compulsory vaccination laws were not violated). It was further amended in the Senate by Powers (D) to provide for tests of sight by optometrists or oculists.

Each of these amendments was put in to favor one group or another, and detracted from the original purpose of the bill, which was to have uniform and thorough examinations of school pupils, with complete records of physical condition. The ultimate result of the many amendments was to reduce the force of the bill and to cause its rejection in the Senate last week. I hope that at some future time it may be possible to have this much desired change in our law. Meanwhile, it will be necessary to continue the annual examinations called for by the old law.

Wins First Prize For Pen and Ink Sketch in Contest

His sketch will appear in the September, 1950, issue of "Air Trails" magazine. Mr. Coon is a second year student at the New England School of Art in Boston. His home is in Greenfield, Mass.

Two Attending Aquatic School As Safety Program Continues

Mr. Frank Dowett, Chairman of Newton Chapter Red Cross Water Safety Program reported that Miss Betty Duffy, one of the Swimming instructors in the Swimming Program, and Officer Gilbert J. Champagne, new First Aid Chairman for the Chapter, were attending the Aquatic School at Camp Kiwanis. Sunday Officer Champagne presented a demonstration of artificial respiration for the guests there.

The Water Safety Program is essentially a preventive program, to eliminate needless loss of life by teaching children to swim and observe rules of safety in the water. In the metropolitan area already this season there have been several water casualties. It is to prevent similar occurrences in Newton that this program is carried on.

Children over five years of age will be registered. The fee for registration which helps to cover the cost of transportation is 25 cents for the season. Two buses will be used to transport children from the city playgrounds to Crystal Lake on a schedule to be announced. The hours are from 9:30 to 12. Registration will continue at Crystal Lake from July 5 through the 7th. Classes will start July 10.

Miss Claire McCarthy is in charge of the staff which consists of: Kathleen McGuire, Virginia Murphy and Betty Duffy.

M. Armand, Beauty Consultant to Be Here June 27-July 1

M. Armand, famed beauty consultant of M. Louis in Philadelphia, and Charles of the Ritz in New York, will be at Russo's Hair Stylists, 1229 Centre street, Newton Centre from June 27 to July 1 to give private consultations to any woman desiring professional advice on her hair style.

Armand, who has styled the hair of models, showgirls, and actresses on two coasts, is a firm believer in the individuality of hair-dos. He feels that for every type of face there is a distinct type of hair-do. Many ladies are undoubtedly wondering about Armand's opinion of the short hair-do and its style merits for the coming year. Again, it is a question of its attractiveness with the individual face type, and though Armand believes short hair is here to stay, and had been predicting its advent long before anybody dreamed of it, he would not advise it for a woman whose looks call for longer hair.

M. Armand may be seen by appointment, or by just dropping in. If desired, he will do the styling himself.

To Be Elected an Official of Fire Extinguisher Co.

It has been learned that Alderman-at-large Winfield C. Anderson of Newton is to be elected vice-president in charge of sales of one of New England's largest and oldest manufacturers of Fire Extinguishers with national distribution of their product.

Mr. Anderson, proprietor of Anderson & Company, an advertising agency located in Boston, has served the firm for some years as advertising counsel and it is expected that his appointment will be confined at a stockholders meeting to be held in the near future, although his direct connection with the company is not to take place until sometime in the late fall. He will retain his connections with his own companies as heretofore.

Their wishes have resulted in the presentation of a petition to City Hall. The petition, headed by the name of Charlotte M. Cigarette Thought Cause of Fire

A cigarette was reported as the probable cause of a $2500 fire in the home of Joseph P. Goulding, 43 Pine street, West Newton, last Friday.

Engines 2, 4 and 5, Ladder 1, and the lighting plant, under the supervision of Fire Chief John E. Corcoran and Assistant Chief Henry L. Murphy were at the scene after the alarm was sounded from Box 315 at 10:12 p.m.

Patrolmen George Vedeccio and Raymond Thibault removed Mr. Goulding to the Newton-Wellesley Hospital for treatment of second and third degree burns on the face and arms, after he was found nearly unconscious in the bathroom by Lt. George O'Neil, Sgt. A. Charles Mascia, and Patrolman Mario J. Marino. Fireman Christopher Bradley, Engine 4, was treated for a cut hand at the fire.

Traffic was held up by the crowd gathered to watch the blaze, which caused damage to the piazza, second floor bedroom, and other rooms in the house.

The building addition as planned will contain a dining hall auditorium with stage, with ceiling height for basketball and badminton, a new kitchen, and six classrooms for the growing church school. The total cost is estimated at over $100,000 but the present unit will be about one-third of that amount.

The rebuilding plans of the Parish have been of interest to the community since the church and Parish Hall were completely destroyed by a fire of unknown origin in November 1943. Since that time the church and sanctuary have been rebuilt, completely equipped and paid for with the addition of a church parlor, a tea kitchen and four classrooms.

The church was consecrated debt free by Bishop Henry Knox Sherrill on the occasion of the seventy-fifth anniversary of the Parish in 1946. The Rev. Richard P. McClintock has been the rector for the past twelve years and during that time the membership of the parish has more than doubled.

Lyman M. Beggs Jr. has been named chairman of the Building Fund Committee which recently raised $18,000 towards the expansion program.

Five Cent Fare for Children Is Now In Effect to Sept. 7

Children over five years of age and under 14 will have the benefit of a five-cent fare, including transfer privilege, for a ride anywhere on the M.T.A. from today (Thursday), to and including Thursday, September 7.

Under this arrangement, children under fourteen will be entitled to the same privileges as passengers paying the regular ten-cent or fifteen-cent fares. The only limitation will be that the five-cent fare for children will not be in effect during the early morning period between 2 a.m. and 4:30 a.m.

No special tickets will be issued. The five-cent fare will be paid in the fare box either when a child is entering or leaving a surface vehicle or at a man-attended or collector's fare box as the child enters a rapid transit or subway station.

A House Appropriations Committee study disclosed that in one year the Federal Bureau of Internal Revenue printed 500 million tax forms and 115 million instruction sheets to supply 47 million taxpayers. Hundreds of millions of such forms, long outdated and no longer useful, were found stored in a leased building.

Top Aerial Act Will Thrill Throngs at Legion Carnival

Aristocrats of the world of sawdust and spangles, and long a family feature of Ringling Bros. and Barnum and Bailey Circus, the Rooneys are coming to Needham on June 28.

The Rooneys have a daredevil aerial act they will stage at the annual carnival of Needham Post No. 14, American Legion. The carnival will be open Wednesday through Friday evenings, and Saturday afternoon and evening next week at Memorial Park.

The Rooney team will perform each evening from a high aerial hanging perch suspended between twin ladders. They specialize in gymnastics, postures and difficult balancing feats, both singly and together on their hanging perch. Their routine includes unique creations in hand-to-hand balancing, equilibrium work, ankle holds, neck-to-neck revolves and many other dangerous feats.

The Legion Carnival this year will include a merry-go-round, Ferris wheel and various rides for children. The midway will be larger and brighter. Games for young and old, balloons, spun sugar, and taffy apples will be much in evidence—in fact all the color and delight of carnival time will be there.

Needham Post will give away a Studebaker 4-door deluxe sedan on the last night. In addition, attendance prizes will be given on Wednesday and Thursday evenings. A new television set will also be given away on each of the two nights.

Governor

de vested in the local authority, the Oak Hill District Improvement Association took steps to introduce corrective legislation, and to generate support through-out the State. As people became acquainted with the facts, the legislation gained wide support, resulting in its final passage and the signature of the Governor. In the preamble to House Bill 855 it stated: "Whereas, the deferred operation of this Act would tend to defeat its purpose, which is to restore local authority over the issuance of building permits, therefore, it is declared to be an emergency law necessary for the immediate preservation of the public convenience," so that it is effective upon enactment.

Under the new law a building inspector may issue a permit where the plans show conformity with the State Regulations which may not conform to the local building code. The important emphases under the new law is that the local inspector is not required to issue a permit. Under the new law relating to an "Engineer's Affidavit" this section has been completely repealed.

President Arthur G. Heaney of the Oak Hill District Improvement Association has called a "special meeting" of the Board of Directors for Monday, at the Oak Hill School to deliver a complete report concerning the passage of this legislation, and to take up a number of other important matters of concern to the Oak Hill District.

The officers of the Association are John B. Stetson and Russell S. Broad, vice-presidents; Henry S. C. Cummings, secretary; J. Ralph Stuart, treasurer; William E. Lawkin, auditor; and directors, William D. Bradshaw, Alexander L. McFarland, Donald Morse, Edward A. Sanders, Franklin N. Flaschner, Richard A. McLellan, Harold F. Tracy, Donald M. Hill, Jr., and Werner A. Senff.

Awarded an honorary degree by Bowdoin College, Brunswick, Maine, Saturday, was the REV. JOSEPH C. MacDONALD, 173 Moffat road, Waban. Rev. MacDonald graduated from Bowdoin cum laude, in the Class of 1915, and attended Union Theology School. He served as a Second Lieutenant in World War I and has been pastor of the Union Church of Waban since 1926.

ported that in a recent poll graduates had praised highly the quality of instruction and the spirit of personal interest that characterized the Junior College.

Harold M. Gores, superintendent of Newton public schools, and Theodore Lockwood, Mayor of Newton, brought greetings to the Junior College graduates.

In delivering the Class Dissertation, Mr. Chase raised the question of what hope was held out to young people in these days. His conclusion was that only education could fit people to cope with contemporary problems, and that he and his classmates had been well equipped by their two years in Newton Junior College to go forward as constructive citizens.

Opening the Commencement address, Prof. Charles Hugh Smith, Brown University, said, "In speaking of science tomorrow, one must first consider what scientists are doing today.

Just who is a scientist? What characteristics distinguish him from his fellow man?" Lack of bias, vivid imagination, perseverance even in the face of possible failure, he listed as those characteristics, and exemplified them with illustrations. He noted by the way, "When one takes into account the large number of scientists at work on highly secret projects in the last war, it was a very small percentage that failed."

He said in speaking of the future that "secrecy costs us more than it does any other nation, ready to use the information when it becomes available." He pointed out, "The atomic bomb is the most expensive way yet devised to kill a man. . . . It may be that it will yet drive the human race back to the farm, back to the healthy country air." He said that the net result of advances made in medicine as a by-product of the atomic bomb "will be the addition of several years to the life-expectancy of the individual." He deprecated the sensational effects attributed to the bomb, driving his point home here with "I hesitate to say this lest I be misunderstood, but a cake of soap in the bottom of the bathtub is likely in the long run to prove more deadly than the famous bomb."

Referring to the plans for a science research foundation in this country, he said, "There is one serious difficulty with this plan: the general public does not draw a line between research and development, though the scientist does." While research is the search for basic truth, practical or not, development is practical application of the results of research. If the politician measures the value of a science research foundation solely by practical results, he is not likely to support it. For this reason the people who elect the politicians must have "the opportunity to be informed." More money must be spent in education so that the people can be educated to play their responsible part in our democracy, and recognize distinctions such as that between research and development.

A college commencement is therefore an important event in a democracy; young men and women trained for lives of usefulness move out into the main stream of our life. It is an especial privilege for a scientist to have part in such a celebration.

Prof. Smiley asked the graduates to seek to develop further in themselves the characteristics of the scientist that they had shown in achieving the values of maintaining a sense of humor and "taking time out for a breather," and concluded, "I believe that you are moving into a future which will be unhappy in spots, but never dull; it ought to be one of the most interesting times in history. May I wish you the very best in it."

Introducing Dr. James Palmer, chairman Newton School Committee, who presented the degrees to the graduates of Newton Junior College, Raymond A. Green, principal Newton Junior College, emphasized the pioneer status of the Junior College in New England, and predicted a growing recognition of the public junior college in this area, and an increasingly useful future for Newton Junior College in particular.

Harry L. Walen was Commencement marshal and chairman of the Commencement committee. Charles H. Mergendahl marshalled the faculty.

Mrs. B. Alden Thresher, Mr. Guernsey Camp, Mr. Gordon Russell, and Mr. Haskell Freeman of the Newton School Committee were guests on the platform.

Recreation Center Bids To Be Opened

Bids for the construction of a $75,000 recreation center to be located on the Hawthorne Play-ground, Hawthorn street, off Watertown street, Newton, will be opened July 5.

The proposed building will be a one-story structure and will contain a gymnasium, a play-room, showers, toilet and kitchen facilities.

Construction is expected to start July 19 and the building is expected to be completed by the first of next year. It will be used for afternoon and evening activities.

Announce Election of Seven Trustees of Andover Newton Theological School This Week

The election of seven trustees at Andover Newton Theological School, of Baptist and Congregational origins dating back 143 years, has been announced by Dr. Harold W. Tribble, president. The school has more than 500 graduates serving pastorates in New England.

At the same time, the promotion of the Rev. Dr. Roger Hazleton, as Abbot professor of Christian theology to succeed the Rev. Dr. Nels F. S. Ferre, now of Vanderbilt University school of theology, was announced.

The appointment of the Rev. Walter J. Harrelson, who received his bachelor of divinity degree, cum laude, from Union Theological Seminary last year, as instructor in old testament, was also announced.

In addition, Dr. Tribble revealed that the Rev. Dr. Herbert Gezork, professor of Christian sociology and world relations at the Andover Newton Theological School and lecturer at Wellesley College, has accepted from the state department an appointment to go on a three month's mission to Germany where he will make a study of the teaching and social ethics at the state universities. He will also lecture and conduct seminars at German universities and lay academies. Dr. Gezork has served as a military liaison officer in Germany before.

Elected to the trustees were Frederick Crawford, formerly of Watertown, now of Cleveland, Ohio, president of the Thompson Products Co., and formerly president of the National Association of Manufacturers; Fred D. Knight of Hartford, Ct., vice-president of the Hartford Power and Light Co.; James A. Patch of Carlisle; Mrs. Leslie E. Swain of Craigville, Cape Cod formerly of the Northern Baptist Convention and only women member of the executive committee of the World Council of Churches; the Rev. Denton J. Neely, Nashua, N. H.; the Rev. Thomas S. Roy, pastor of the First Baptist Church of Worcester, and Donald D. Wyman of North Abington.

Elected for the Newton Alumni Association were the Rev. Wallace Forgey, pastor of the First Baptist Church, Melrose; the Rev. James A. Davidson, First Baptist Church, Brockton; and the Rev. Walter J. Sillen, pastor, First Baptist Church, Watertown.

The Abbot chair of theology is considered the oldest professorship in the theological schools of the United States. Dr. Hazleton, who will assume this appointment, came to Andover Newton in 1945 after serving as dean of the chapel at Colorado College, Colorado Springs, Col. He received his A. B. from Amherst College in 1931, his M. A. degree from the University of Chicago in 1934, his B.D. degree from Chicago Theological Seminary in 1934, and the Ph.D. degree from Yale University in 1937.

Mr. Harrelson received his A.B. degree from the University of North Carolina in 1947, and his B.D. degree from Union Seminary. He has been appointed traveling fellow for the school year 1950-51 and will study at the University of Basle in Switzerland. He has been granted the Turner Fellowship by Andover Newton to enable him to study in Palestine.

Chief Urges That All Cars Be Given Careful Check-up

Police Chief Philip Purcell of the Newton Police Department has urged all motorists to make sure that their cars are in the best mechanical condition for safe operation on the highways. The twice a year inspection required by law is not enough, he said; the owner should constantly watch for signs of failure, and should have his car checked regularly.

When driving, he should use the utmost of caution; the chances of accidents are increasing with more and more cars on the highways, and no one can be in so much of a hurry that he has to endanger not only his own life, but those of the other drivers on the road as well. "Drive your vehicle as you would have others drive theirs," the Golden Rule of Driving, is a wise maxim for every motorist to follow.

Auburndale Bloodmobile Visits Busy Scene

July 4th is coming! Give a pint of blood either June 29th at the Newton Highlands Congregational Church, or June 30th at St. Mary's Church, Newton Lower Falls so that the persons injured during this week-end who will need blood will have it—so that lives will be saved.

The Regional Blood Center at 314 Dartmouth street, Boston, where all blood collected in the Commonwealth of Massachusetts is stored was faced with a terrific emergency during Memorial Day week-end. Every pint of blood available disappeared from the shelves of their refrigerators before noon on Monday, May 29th. To fill the emergency local chapters recruited over 750 additional donors.

Let's not let this happen again.
Let's not have a needless waste of human life because blood is not available in the Blood Bank when needed. Call LAcell 7-6000 and make your appointment now!

Large Newton Gathering Expected at Shrine Sunday

The annual Newton pilgrimage to the National Shrine of Our Lady of LaSalette in Ipswich will take place this Sunday. The devotion at the Shrine will begin at three-thirty in the afternoon, and will last for one hour. On this same day, organized pilgrimages will visit the Shrine from Albany, N. Y., and Concord, N. H., while Belmont, Newton and Arlington are also invited.

This year, the LaSalette Fathers will intensify their appeal for penance and prayer among the pilgrims, in response to the repeated call of Pope Pius XII for the Holy Year. The Shrine will offer the tens of thousands of pilgrims, who will visit the Shrine during the season, an opportunity to fulfill, in some measure, the penitential spirit of the Holy Year Crusade.

The Sunday afternoon services will begin with the recitation of the Rosary, as the pilgrims wend their way in procession through the gardens and past the newly-blessed Shrine of Our Lady, Queen of the Missions. The Way of the Cross will then be followed along the trees leading to the Outdoor Shrine of Our Lady of LaSalette.

This Shrine, always impressive in its rustic surroundings, has been entirely renovated this year. The statues have been rearranged, new shrubbery planted and a permanent altar and pulpit installed. It is at this Shrine that pilgrimage prayers are recited and a short talk delivered. The service is concluded with Benediction.

A number of Newton lads are enrolled at Camp LaSalette for Boys, which will open its fifth consecutive season at the Shrine on July 2nd. The Camp is conducted exclusively by the LaSalette Fathers and Brothers.

For bus reservations, Newton residents should call Mrs. P. T. Hughes, LAcell 7-3934.

At recent ceremonies in the Boston Teachers' College Auditorium, Huntington avenue, Boston, Ralph J. Wheeler, 104 Fairway drive, West Newton, was installed as Secretary-treasurer of the high court of officers of the Massachusetts Catholic Order of Foresters.

Collection Costs Show Increase

In 1935 the cost of collecting, hauling, and burning rubbish in Newton was $6.63 a ton; last year it was $9.55 a ton. This increase, proportionately smaller than the increase in the cost of labor, is due to breakdowns in the incinerator. In a statement by Willard S. Pratt, Director of Public Works, Pratt said: "As has been noted, the incinerator cost is the figure that is excessive in this computation, and we are positive that this can be materially reduced. Cost figures at the incinerator appear high due to the fact that during the summer it was necessary to rebuild walls and repair furnaces and equipment, which closed down the operation for a period of eight weeks, when the cost per ton should be considerably reduced in another year when breakdowns should not occur."

Policewomen Visit Blood Center

No better proof of the serious mindedness of the new Newton Policewomen could be had than their visit en masse on Monday of this week to the Red Cross Blood Center at 314 Dartmouth street in Boston, where each offered her blood that a life might be saved.

These fine women of Newton, as a part of Chief Purcell's force, have dedicated themselves to the care and protection of the youth of our City. As they are about to go "off duty" during the non-school weeks ahead, they realize the importance of facing the hazards of vacation time, particularly the awesome thought of the coming Fourth-of-July weekend accidents when blood banks are drained to a frightening low.

This mass donation of blood by Newton Policewomen was arranged through Mrs. Hannah Levensohn, Blood Program Director of the Newton Red Cross Chapter, who hopes that this fine demonstration will spur other citizens to follow this example by giving blood when the Bloodmobile Unit visits the City this Thursday and Friday.

Quinobequin Rd. To Be Improved

It was announced Saturday that Governor Dever has signed the bill introduced at this session of the Massachusetts Legislature by Senator Richard A. Lee, at the request of Waban residents.

The bill, calling for the improvement of Quinobequin Road in Waban and Newton Lower Falls, and directing the Metropolitan District Commission to reconstruct it, is the culmination of a four-year battle by the City of Newton to improve this street.

Change in Police Rank Shortly

The police department is to reorganize this month and under the new changes, there will be a new deputy chief, a second captain, and only three lieutenants in place of the previous four.

The Civil Service Commission has granted permission to consider the names on the present chief's list as candidates for deputy chief. The top three names on the lieutenant's list are eligible for promotion to that post, also. The appointment of two captains to fill the vacancies created by the appointment of the deputy chief, will be from the chief's list also, since the name of the present captain came from that list. When these vacancies are filled, there will be but one vacancy on the lieutenant's list.

Flag Presented by Newton Unveiled at Dedication of Historical Marker in West

The Massachusetts State Flag (3' x 5' white taffeta material with State Seal, Coat of Arms, Cold Fringe, Eight Foot Jointer Pole, Cord and Spear), a gift from the City of Newton, was recently unveiled at the Dedication of a Historical Marker at Shingle Springs, El Dorado County, California.

In acknowledging the gift to the City of Newton the El Dorado County Centennial Committee stated "The Massachusetts Flag is a handsome emblem and one which the descendants will always treasure. The presentation was one of the highlights of a colorful ceremony which was witnessed by approximately five hundred visitors."

"We want to express our sincere appreciation for this beautiful gift from the City of Newton and extend a cordial invitation to the citizens of Newton to visit our County if ever they are in this part of the country. The monument site is located at the town of Shingle Springs in El Dorado County, California, on U. S. Highway 50 about 30 miles east of Sacramento."

The monument is of white limestone taken from the Eldorado Mine close to the site. It is about 8 feet in height, width at base 6 feet, 3 feet in depth and cost approximately $500.

The California Centennial's Commission furnished a bronze plaque with the following inscription: "On this site the Boston Newton Joint Stock Association encamped on September 28, 1849."

The Company left Boston April 16 and arrived at Sutters, September 27th after a remarkable journey across the United States by train, steamboat, covered wagon and mule-back. A rich store of written records preserved by these pioneers leaves for posterity a fascinating picture of the Gold Rush.

"In April of 1849, a group of 25 young men living in the vicinity of Boston, Massachusetts formed for their mutual benefit, an organization which they have called the Boston-Newton Joint Stock Association and set out on a journey from Boston to the gold fields of California, arriving in Sacramento in September. In April of 1849, descendants of those adventurers met and formed the Boston-Newton Group, its purpose being threefold:

To hold a Centennial Program - this took place last September.
To erect a monument as a tribute to our fathers and grandfathers.
To record the history of the Boston-Newton Company.

Passenger in Middle in Car Theft

Newton police officer Lawrence J. Dungan chased a car for a mile and a half Monday afternoon and after catching up to it on Chestnut street, near Austin street, his only prisoner was an innocent hitch-hiker who didn't know the car was stolen.

The occupant of the car was picked up by the driver of the convertible coupe in Boston, and was more than a little surprised when the driver pulled over to the curb and fled while Officer Dungan was chasing the car.

Bourgault will be advanced from a third class to a second class commissaryman; and Flaherty from seaman recruit to seaman apprentice on July 1, according to their commanding officer, Lieutenant Commander Arthur H. Snyder, USNR, of Wellesley.

A veteran of World War II, Bourgault served with the Navy Sea Bees on Hawaii and Guam. He is now employed as an equipment installer by the New England Telephone and Telegraph Co.

Local Couple Observe 59th Anniversary

Mr. and Mrs. M. E. Beardsley of Auburndale celebrated their 59th wedding anniversary Wednesday at their summer home in Provincetown. Mr. Beardsley is 91 years of age.

The Graphic and their many friends extend best wishes to the couple on the occasion of this happy event.

Gigantic Fireworks Display To Climax Celebration Tuesday

Children by the dozen, in arms and in carriages, on foot and by bicycle, will flock to the Newton Centre playground next Tuesday to attend the mammoth old-fashioned Fourth of July celebration sponsored since 1890 by the Newton Centre Improvement Association.

Little girls will bring their most cherished dolls and carriages, decked out in gay crepe paper, to enter the doll carriage parade which opens the morning program. Small boys will lead their dogs, in numberless varieties, to enter a dog show where ribbons are awarded for "individuality" rather than heredity, and a well loved mutt has an equal chance with a highly bred show dog.

Independence Day is a democratic holiday and a second pet show open to all varieties except dogs represents the essence of democracy in the animal world. A worm may be king for a day in this competition where ribbons go to the prettiest, ugliest and most original species. Alligators, horses, Siamese cats, turtles, rabbits and even a bull frog have been among eligible entries.

As grandpas cheer the boys and girls who compete in swimming races at Crystal Lake at 12:30 to 2 p.m., and at novelty races on the playground at 2:30 p.m., they may remember the good old days' back in the 1890's when the all-day program, sponsored by the Improvement Association, featured a two-mile bicycle race, high jumps, pole vaulting and a "hop, step and a jump" contest.

Funds for the free ice cream and cookies for Newton boys and girls and for the gigantic fireworks display which brings thousands of "outsiders" to the playground at night, are provided by the Improvement Association from $2 membership dues paid by any Newton Centre families who wish to join the community organization, augmented by voluntary contributions made by folks who enjoy the biggest community and family party of the year.

The program for next Tuesday is as follows:
Opening Ceremonies.
Salute to the Flag.
Doll Carriage Parade: The judges will award prizes for the most original carriage and the best dressed doll.

Pet Show (all varieties eligible except dogs and horses). Awards will be made for the prettiest pet, for the ugliest pet, and for the most original species.
Pet Show (dogs only). Awards will be made for the three most individual pets.

Horribles Parade to Feature Upper Falls Fourth of July Celebration

If you see someone wearing a red tag reading, on one side, "I am an Upper Falls Booster," and on the other, "Give the kids a Happy Fourth," you will know that he is a supporter of "Tag Week," which began Sunday and continues through Friday. It is conducted by the Newton Upper Falls Improvement Association and its purpose is to sponsor the Fourth of July celebration for the children. The program, as planned by the Fourth of July Committee, with chairman Thomas Kenney, is as follows:

A Horribles Parade at 12:30, in which merchants are urged to enter floats and decorated carts, and in which individuals will be asked to march, in costume as horribles or as a famous character or scene.

1 p.m. to 6 p.m., pony rides; 1:30, doll carriage, tricycle, and bicycle parade; 2 to 5, sports events. Included in the sports events will be a 25-yard dash, with separate races for boys and girls in each age group; and for the two older age groups in the 50 and 75-yard dash. An obstacle race for both boys and girls of all age groups, a shoe race, horse and jockey race, sack race and centipede race, all of which are open to the three age groups. At 2:30 there will be a pet show; 5, refreshments; 6:30, awarding of prizes; 7 to 9, square dancing; 9 to 10, movies; and 10 to 10:30, fireworks.

There will be three prizes for the boys, and three for the girls, awarded on the basis of points accumulated. These awards will be the top honors of the day; but ribbons and refreshment tickets will be given winners of the top three places in each event.

The bridesmaids, Miss Rosemarie Vaccarello, neice of the bride; and Miss Saia Charles, the

The bridegroom's brother, Thomas P. Connors, was the best man. The ushers were Edward T. and Richard A. Ryan, brothers of the bride; Charles A. Connors of West Roxbury, a cousin; Austin

To have liberty as a nation is not enough.

The individual must be free as well.

Man must be free to make his own choice . . . follow his dream . . . work where he pleases . . . go into business for himself if he likes . . . enjoy the fruits of his enterprise . . . better himself as he wishes, in the true wide-open-opportunity way of America.

To that end, Government must be the servant of the people — not their master.

Individual freedom is destroyed when Government enters into competition with business-managed, tax-paying companies . . . or seizes control of the necessities of life or the ways to make a living.

Fessenden School Day Camp to Open July 3 for 8 Weeks

The Fessenden School Day Camp, under the direction of Warren Huston, Assistant Director of Health and Physical Education of the Newton High School, will open July 3, for an eight week season. Beginning its third year in West Newton, the camp will again have the use of the extensive property and equipment of the school, which includes playing fields, gymnasium, locker rooms and showers, tennis courts and rifle range. To boys and girls, 4 through 12, the same offers a healthy outdoor life with emphasis on instruction in swimming, sports, hobbies and crafts, as well as dramatics and art.

The center of camp life is the large swimming pool which is adequate for the more advanced swimmers but shallow enough for the beginners. Instruction is given according to the size and ability of the camper, and here also the model boats, constructed in the shop, are sailed and raced.

The staff of eighteen counselors are all experienced school and camp personnel from Fessenden as well as the Newton schools.

Two well-known Newton educators, Ellis Spear, A.M., instructor in Science, and Ruth T. Stone, Ed.M., instructor in child development, Nursery Training School of Boston, are serving on the faculty for the school's summer courses which began June 26 and will continue for from four to six weeks, closing the first week of August.

A Notable Record

Entering the sixteenth active year, the Oak Hill District Improvement Association may feel justly proud of its record of service in the Oak Hill District. Originally formed for the purpose of presenting a united front for the then residents of the area in their efforts towards erection of the Oak Hill School, the Association has since that time repeatedly shown the value of a well organized group working for the public welfare of the district as a whole, and accepted with respect and confidence at City Hall.

Never has this been more clearly demonstrated than during the past year. The Association prepared and introduced in the State Legislature a bill designed to return authority over the issuance of building permits to the citizens and towns of the Commonwealth. Its intensive efforts have resulted in final enactment of the bill, which becomes Chapter 534, Acts of 1950. This means that the Building Commissioner of Newton is no longer required to issue a building permit unless plans show that the proposed structure will conform to the Newton building code and in his opinion will not be detrimental to the character of the neighborhood.

This is a real achievement, yet it is but one chapter in the book. In a still growing district the association must watch carefully such things as school and playground development; transportation; public safety; maintenance of main streets, trees, and public areas.

The Oak Hill Improvement Association is to be congratulated on its many fine achievements and by its efforts has proved the value of concerted, co-operative effort by a group of public spirited citizens.

GOP Leaders in Muddle Over Primary Fight No Real Indication Yet of Political Trends.. Senator Lodge Will Not Interfere in Fight..

By far the most unusual aspect to the Massachusetts political picture at this stage of the year is that the Republican leaders could not name even one candidate who is certain of being on their ticket next November.

The present indications are that there will be a vigorous fight for the G.O.P. nomination for every State-wide office to be filled. You would have to go back a long way through the years to find a comparable Republican situation.

In 1938 there were lively contests for a number of places on the G.O.P. slate, but then you could forecast the likely outcome of some of the fights, and you knew there was a good chance that men like Leverett Saltonstall and Horace T. Cahill would land their party nominations.

Some thoughtful Republicans are deeply concerned as to the possible effect the primary battles will have on their election-day prospects.

They have heard some of the political seers express the opinion that a good lusty primary fight might be a healthy thing, and facts and figures can be cited to show that one party or the other went on to a spectacular victory in November after a hard contest in September.

That, however, usually has been more true of the Democrats than the Republicans, and the G.O.P. followers know that frequently the breaks in their own party aren't closed as quickly as they are in the Democratic ranks.

Incredible as it may seem, some of the wounds that were opened at the 1948 Republican national convention have not entirely healed after more than two years.

That's probably the real reason a stronger attempt has not been made to induce ex-Governor Bradford, who is potentially the strongest candidate the G.O.P. could put up for Governor, to leave the practice of law and make a run for the Governorship.

However much any political observer may minimize the damage a hard primary fight may cause within a party, no expert can show that a primary struggle ever improved a party's chances of winning an election.

The fact of the matter is that in a close race the injured feelings caused by a bitter primary, which leave some politicians and their followers sulking in their tents, can cost an election, although it doesn't happen very often.

The last three gubernatorial elections in Massachusetts all have been settled by trends so great that they would have swept over any party dissension.

So far, of course, there has been no indication of how the political trade winds may be blowing next October. Party politicians profess to see omens and signs favorable to their side, but the fact is that political trends usually start about a month or six weeks before election, if that early.

Right now, instead of looking for trends, the average Republican voter will have about all he can do to keep abreast of all the candidates seeking his support and favor. The lists for such offices as Lieutenant Governor and Attorney General are so long that even political writers have to refer to the records.

Judging from the letters-to-the-editor

turning up in newspaper offices, Mason Sears, the retiring chairman of the Republican State Committee, is making some headway in his drive to create a demand that Admiral Louis E. Denfeld run for Governor. But whether he's making enough to impress the admiral is another question.

One story in political circles is that Denfeld would run if he could be assured of public support from Senator Henry Cabot Lodge, Jr. This writer cannot vouch for the accuracy of that report. But while Sears is probably closer to Lodge than any other political figure in Massachusetts, what can state that there is no possibility whatever that Lodge will interfere in the G.O.P. gubernatorial primary either on behalf of Denfeld or anybody else.

You would travel the political highways a long time before you came upon a shrewder and sounder politician than Mr. Lodge, and you may be very certain that he will not allow himself to be caught in the middle of any party primary in which he is a candidate. Lodge will sit out the September fighting and support the G.O.P. victors, whoever they may be, in November.

Do you know what "supererogation" means? If you don't, you're in the same boat with Senator Robert A. Taft of Ohio who may be the next Republican candidate for President.

The following exchange is taken from a debate between Taft and Senator Tom Connally of Texas, chairman of the Senate foreign relations committee, during a discussion of the $3.1 billion foreign aid program:

Connally: "There ought not to be too much controversy or division with respect to action on this measure."

Taft: "Mr. President, will the Senator yield to me for a moment?"

Connally: "I yield."

Taft: "I wish to give notice that I intend to make a major effort to have the bill rejected. Apparently Mr. Connally suggested that this bill should be approved as a matter of course."

Connally: "The Senator from Texas did no such thing, notwithstanding the supererogation of the distinguished Senator from Ohio, who seems to know more about less than anyone else I know."

Taft: "What does the Senator mean by 'supererogation'?"

Connally: "The Senator can look in the dictionary for it. I do not have time to educate the gentleman from Ohio."

(Ed. Note: What Senator Connally undoubtedly meant was that Senator Taft in his opposition to the measure was going beyond the bounds of duty. Our dictionary gives the meaning of the word as: "Act of supererogating; performance of more than is required by duty only.")

Former Postmaster General James A. Farley, the political mastermind behind the first two campaigns of the late Franklin D. Roosevelt, is the overwhelming choice of New York State Democratic leaders as their party's candidate for Governor, but there is some doubt as to whether Farley is interested in running.

In a recent poll of Democratic committees in seven up-State New York counties, Farley drew 126 votes as compared to 35 for his closest opponent who, incidentally, was Congressman Franklin D. Roosevelt, Jr.

Party nominations in New York State are made by delegates to political conventions and not by popular vote, and there is no question but that Farley, whom supporters would describe as the old pro of politics, can have the gubernatorial endorsement if he wants it.

George F. Kennan, counselor for the State department, declared in a speech the other day that we misunderstand the Russian people who, he said, are "saturated" with liberal and moral concepts that "must some day" assert themselves and lead to the collapse of the present Soviet regime.

He maintained that "witch-hunting" now in progress had blinded Americans to "everything but black and white" in matters relating to Communism and had a tendency to stamp all Russians as our enemies. Actually he insisted, while the Russians are "all obliged to do lip service to Communism," the masses "still believed profoundly in certain abstractions, such as decency, honesty, kindness and loyalty in the relations between individuals."

We hope that Mr. Kennan knows what he is talking about, but we suspect that many of the people are saturated with much more than the liberal and moral concepts to which he refers. Certainly, those concepts are taking a long time in asserting themselves.

Eight middle-aged women were arraigned in Milwaukee on gambling charges after they had been found playing rummy with pillowcases as stakes.

Police in Elizabethtown, Ky., unceremoniously interrupted the honeymoon of Frank Kenney after their investigation showed Frank had paid for his wedding ring and marriage license with bad checks and had driven away with his bride in a stolen automobile.

Judge Lem Foster of Lawton, Okla., fined Clifton Miner $20 for picking Daniel Clark's pocket and then fined Daniel Clark $20 for being drunk in public.

Walter Thomas of Woodward, Okla., went to a Kiwanis benefit auction, successfully bid for a coat which just matched his pants, later discovered his wife had donated it to the sale.

Patrolman Leon Debolt of Painesville, O., after investigating a girl's tearful complaint against her father, filed this report on the case: "Daughter, 15 years old, stayed out till 3 a.m. Got paddled. Needed it."

Raymond Woeppel was the only member of the graduating class in Brockton, Mont., but the title of his valedictory address was, "I am not alone."

Letters to the Editor

Wants to Know Whom He Represents

Editor, Newton Graphic:

Recently one of our Representatives lent his support to the attack on two Senatorial candidates because they saw fit to not bow down to machine rule tactics. In response to this second statement issued concerning this matter, I would like our Representative to publicly declare whether he represents the people or the machine.

This Representative recently proposed a bill that forbid those seeking public office to utilize the services of printers by forcing them to print the names of persons that will back them. This incurs much unpleasant relations with those concerned, and it is a very useful method to promote machine rule control. Of what benefit does this bill that this Representative had passed serve the people as a whole? I believe that there could have been more practical bills passed that would have been of more value to the people than this personal measure.

Needed in our State House are individuals that will constructively endorse better recreational facilities such as outdoor or indoor municipal pools that may be used for swimming and if outdoors, hockey in the winter.

I will endeavor to survey the advantages of a municipal swimming pool in this district and if elected I will do my best to aid the ones that endorse this useful public project.

GORDON HAWES

Wants an Aggressive and Legal Mind

Editor of the Graphic:

Very recently a leading Boston newspaper carried a news item reporting a luncheon meeting of campaign workers at the Parker House in behalf of Frederick Ayer, Jr., candidate for the Republican nomination for attorney-general. The principal speaker was Mayo A. Shattuck, prominent attorney and former president of the Mass. Bar Association. The following is a direct quote from Mr. Shattuck's talk and refers to his course of action if Mr. Ayer is elected:

"I will provide 25 lawyers who will undertake on a research basis, free of charge, any difficult problem of the attorney-general's office. These men will do this work in a scholarly way without compensation, obligation or political implication. I will select these men from the outstanding law firms of the Commonwealth."

Frankly, I do not know Mr. Ayer, nor any of the other announced candidates for this office personally. I have been assured that he is a fine fellow. However, I do know that Mr. Ayer has definite limited legal experience, having been admitted to the bar only last November, 1949. The attorney-general's office is a position for a proven and distinguished legal mind. It seems to me the statement of Mr. Shattuck comes pretty close to admitting Ayer's inability to personally handle the job.

As a lawyer, I expect to see an aggressive and able legal mind handling the many important decisions which should be made only by the attorney-general.

The Republican party must pledge and demonstrate to the voters of Massachusetts that it can represent all citizens. The fall elections will be a supreme test of that pledge. Never should the Republican party nominate a man for a state-wide office merely because he is young and a Republican.

Paul S. Rich.

Need for GOP Victory

Editor, Newton Graphic:

I should like to express publicly my sincere appreciation for the widespread support and encouragement that I have been receiving from the many people throughout the city who are interested in my candidacy for the State Legislature.

For many years Newton has been represented in the General Court by able and conscientious men and women. It has always held a position of active leadership in the Republican Party. I want to assure the citizens of Newton that to the best of my ability I would attempt to take a part in continuing and strengthening this tradition through aggressive and constructive representation in their behalf.

Far more important than the outcome of any individual candidacy, however, is the necessity for Republican victory in the State this fall. If the Democrats win a majority in the Legislature, they will be able to re-district all Congressional areas now held by Republicans. This purely political maneuver would deny the voter the representation of his own choosing. To prevent such a possibility, it is vital that all Republicans cast their vote on September 19 for candidates who can carry the Republican banner to victory.

Edwin O. Childs, for twenty years Mayor of the City of Newton, and a man revered by all who knew him, phrased the issue as follows: "The right to vote implies the duty to vote. The dangerous vote is the vote that isn't cast." On these words of a fine American, I cannot improve.

Desires Two Mail Deliveries a Day

Editor, Newton Graphic:

Does it seem in keeping with 1950 progress that we are unable to get our mail by calling at the Post Office? Fully sixty years ago, my mother used to drive to the Post Office twice a day for the mail, but in the present day and age, the suburban branch Post Offices receive the mail from the Boston Post Office but once a day. If the nation cannot afford to deliver the mail, please, at least, have it possible for us to get our mail at the Post Office, itself. Let us have a post office box with a number, and someone there to give us our mail.

Takes Issue With Gibbs Statement

Editor, Newton Graphic:

Several weeks ago Mr. Donald L. Gibbs, Chairman of the Republican City Committee, openly and publicly criticized my action in seeking both the Democratic and Republican nominations for State Senator in the Middlesex and Suffolk District which includes all of Newton, Ward 5 of Cambridge, and Wd 22 of Brighton. Mr. Gibbs made a covert intimation that I have calculated to deceive the republican voters of Newton. This is absolutely and decidedly not true. I am not trying or calculating to deceive any voters anywhere. In fact I have never tried or calculated to deceive anyone, and I do not intend to do so now or at any time in the near or distant future. It seems to me that Mr. Gibbs is playing very loosely with the truth, for he must know that the first announcement I made of my candidacy, which was given publicly in the Newton papers, stated plainly that I was an enrolled Democrat. Furthermore, Mr. Gibbs, who was a candidate for this same office two years ago, knows that the laws covering nomination papers for the office, make it obligatory for the person seeking such nomination to print or type his political party enrollment on each nomination paper, and that the candidate must file a certificate of such enrollment from his registrars of voters with the Secretary of State on or before the last day for filing nomination papers so that such information can be included on the ballots used by the voters in the Primaries. The State of California embodies the same type of law in their constitution because we know that the Republican Governor of that state, Earl Warren, won both party nominations in a state election previous to the one held this year. This year, 1950, Governor Warren has won the Republican nomination, but has lost the Democratic nomination to James Roosevelt.

If this blast by Mr. Gibbs means that the Chairman of the Republican City Committee intends to take sides in this primary contest, it will be well for all candidates except the Gibbs-Republican City Committee's sponsored candidate to batten down the hatches and prepare for the same type of mean, vicious whispering campaign that was used when Gibbs ran for the Republican nomination for Senator two years ago.

FIREWORKS!

The fire-cracker in the road just seems as if it won't explode. A little boy impatiently runs out to see what he can see. He bends down close to learn what's wrong and doesn't have to wait too long. For, then he finds, to his dismay, that he is learning the hard way. Did you ever have to wait impatiently for a snack during lunch hour? Rough, isn't it! Well, you don't have to wait at the Snak House Delicatessen. We take great pride in the efficiency of our service during the lunch hour. And, what delicious sandwiches made to your liking. But, don't take our word for it, try it yourself. The address is 346 Centre St.

Match Playing Possible Cause Of Fire

Children playing with matches was cited by Fire Chief John E. Corcoran as the possible cause of the fire last Friday in the first floor apartment at 518 Waltham street, West Newton. Although this apartment is unoccupied, the adjoining apartments are occupied by Winston Hardy and William Shaughnessy, whose families were forced to abandon their quarters, but whose apartments were unharmed, thanks to the quick action of firemen.

Several firemen were cut; one, Lt. Arthur Trainer, being treated at the scene, and John P. Gorgone of Engine 2, was overcome by smoke.

The 2½-story wooden building is owned by Archibald G. Barron of Harvard, proprietor of Barron's Department store in West Newton.

George H. Bickford Of Grafton Marries Betty Elaine Sowles

Miss Betty Elaine Sowles, daughter of Dr. and Mrs. Homer C. Sowles, 390 Dedham street, Newton Centre, became the bride Saturday afternoon of Mr. George Haynes Bickford, son of Mr. and Mrs. George F. Bickford of Grafton. The ceremony, which took place in the First Baptist Church of Newton, Newton Centre, was performed by the Rev. Frank E. Duddy. A reception followed at the Brae Burn Country Club.

Rows of ruffled organly encircled the heart-shaped neckline of the bride's gown of white organza over taffeta, which had a bouffant skirt bordered with rows of ruffles and a long train. There were clusters of orange blossoms on her Chantilly lace veil and her bouquet combined Eucharis lilies, stephanotis and flours d'amour.

Miss Madeline Sowles, her sister's maid of honor, carried a Godey bouquet of shasta daisies and stephanotis with red roses in the center. Her crescent head-dress was of white delphinium and white daisies. She wore a white organza gown trimmed with American Beauty, as did the bridesmaids, whose bouquets matched their head-dresses. They were Miss Lucile Adams of Urbana, Ill.; Mrs. William R. Cady

The Trek of the Boston-Newton Company

"Gold in California" printed in bold type, stirred the imagination of both young and old a hundred years ago. Young men in the New England States began to consider plans for a westward journey and by February 1849 six companies organized to travel to California via the South Pass.

The four New England "dons" were the by-laws of the overland companies; no Sabbath-breaking; no swearing; no gambling; no drinking.

Massachusetts was proud of the young men hurrying to the gold fields and the adventurers were carefully selected in respect to character and background.

When the contracts were signed, each company in turn, marched to a local church to receive a sermon of admonition and advice. "Spread New England civilization!" keyed the address.

Farewell dinners and parties became common events in Boston and vicinity the winter and early spring of 1849. Bands playing at the depot, made leaving an impressive occasion. Relatives and friends stood by to wave the last farewell to the vigorous young men who started for California to mine gold and to leave imprints of the New England way of life upon a new country.

And hidden away in the heart of each argonaut, were his own dreams and desires.

The Boston-Newton Company met at the Western Depot in Boston on the morning of April 16th and started their journey by train, riding in a private car to Buffalo, N. Y.

The "Baltic Steamer," new and elegant, carried them across Lake Erie to Sandusky, Ohio.

Another ride by train to Cincinnati where they boarded the "Griffin Yeatman" and sailed down the Ohio River, the beauty and charm of which left a lasting impression on the travelers.

The men stood on deck to greet the Mississippi which carried them north to St. Louis where they spent several days buying equipment for the trip across the plains.

The "Bay State" set sail on the Missouri River, landing the company near Independence.

A century ago, Independence, Missouri was the jumping-off place where civilization ended and the West began. Here encamped among 5,000 argonauts, the men began to feel that they were part of this stirring movement, a force pushing humanity westward which brought into consciousness the Great Trek.

Independence introduced our New England forebearers to camp life and with somewhat of a vengeance. On the first morning they awoke to find rain pelting their tents.

They donned their rubber suits (1849 raincoats) which consisted of several pieces—a pair of pants, a loose fitting jacket, gloves, hat and boots. If the sun came out the India rubber became sticky and a bit odiferous.

Air mattresses made sleeping comfortable but bedtime a busy hour because the India rubber beds were inflated with hand bellows. Rubber blankets to ward off stray rain drops, an India rubber boat to cross streams where there were no ferries, illustrate the thoroughness with which our pioneer venturers equipped themselves.

Two thicknesses of canvas stretched over the frames of the wagons and a light spring wagon outfitted for an ambulance at tests of their foresight.

This display of up-to-date arrayal no doubt helped to win for the Boston-Newton Company the title, "The Best Equipped Company to Leave Independence."

On May 16th, they set out from Independence with five wagons, six horses and 55 mules on the 2000 mile trek through an uncivilized country.

The first two weeks brought them only 55 miles further west and north due to constant rains. However, their courage never wavered and perhaps this trying period at the very beginning of the trip, schooled and steadied them for a tragedy on June 8th.

George Winslow passed away with cholera that morning. The men dug a deep grave in which they placed their comrade with all the dignity and formality exercised in civilized communities. They then placed a red sandstone marker on the grave with the inscription—George Winslow, Age 25, Newton, Mass.

Of the approximate 25,000 people who crossed the plains via the South Pass that year and the possibly 5,000 who died while enroute, the Boston-Newton Company was the only group to leave a stone marker on the California-Oregon Trail so far as is known.

The party moved on across the plains making better time as the rains abated. Buffalo hunting engaged the young men in thrilling and exciting chases and also filled their dinner plates with buffalo steaks.

The Company pushed on and on through what is now Nebraska and Wyoming, finally to reach the South Pass. A joyous moment to stand on the dividing ridge and to observe water on one side of the Continental Divide flow east and on the other west. And joyous, too, because the large half of the trek was now behind them.

Down into Echo Canyon and then to view the Great Salt Lake. One week of rest, eating home cooked meals in private homes, selling their wagons and heavy equipment, making pack saddles for the mules and then starting over the desert region.

The valley of the Humboldt in Nevada of today was kind to our party and they traversed the much dreaded desert with little difficulty.

The cottonwoods along the Carson River waved a friendly salute to the wear, travelers, offering water, shade and fuel. Later, cottonwoods guided the men through sage brush and on through lush, green meadows that stretched for miles ahead of them.

Then, looming up before them, came the great wall with the mountain peaks of the high Sierras towering in the blue California sky. Up and up their course took them, zigzagging through a narrow, rugged gorge, past Red Lake and over Carson Summit.

The trail followed a ridge over 8600 feet high and on the summit the men found the mountains had not yet cast off her last winter's wrap. Three cheers rang out as the New Englanders drank melted snow from their tin cups. Deer meat for dinner and the men in fine spirits to descend the next day into Grizzly Flats. Lots of grizzlies but few deer. Here they encountered the roughest terrain of the long journey besides a total absence of feed for the animals. Creeping down into Pleasant Valley to reach their eldorado, they did not stop to try their luck or even converse with the men panning gold alongside the trail, for now they were but two days away

Loan Department at West Newton Savings Bank One Of Largest in the State

The personal loan department of the West Newton Savings Bank is one of the largest operated by any of the 190 Mutual Savings Banks in the Commonwealth. This information was disclosed in facts and figures assembled by Kenneth W. Rogers, Vice-President and Treasurer of the Bank in preparing a talk for presentation to the Savings Bank Management Conference held recently at Wellesley College.

Mr. Rogers in his talk stated: "This department of the bank has been developed since July 1, 1945, when the law was placed in effect permitting savings banks to handle this type of loan. Operation has been most satisfactory to date, and the management of the West Newton Savings Bank is pleased with the results of this effort to provide its depositors and residents of the community with a more complete loan service."

"While officers of the bank are strong advocates of thrift, and believe that it is much wiser for the individual to save before he spends, they also realize that there are emergencies which sometimes cannot be anticipated, and that there are other occasions when immediate use and enjoyment of durable goods may be justified."

"The management of the bank reasons this way: we offer mortgage loans, repair and improvement loans, passbook loans, loans on stocks, bonds, life insurance and other types of collateral, so why should we send elsewhere the person of good credit who needs temporary accommodation on the basis of his own signature? He should have the right to this service from his savings bank, and he is receiving it at the West Newton Savings Bank."

"The operation of this department is further evidence that the bank is adopting all measures to add to its earnings for the benefit of its depositors."

from Sacramento and letters from home ranked uppermost in their thoughts.

Five of the New England companies traveling via the South Pass arrived in California with as little difficulty as our venerable fathers and grandfathers experienced in crossing the plains, only perhaps, with less distinctions. An excellent record for the Great Trek.

On September 25, 1949, some of the Boston-Newton family visited Shingle Springs. A drink from the spring that has supplied water for a hundred years and more, a walk on soil still untouched by the plow and just over the hill a deer leaping out among ancient oaks to make a century seem short and to wait for us a breath of the 49ers.

William Lothrop Allen

Funeral services for William Lothrop Allen, 89-year-old retired leather merchant and former Newton alderman, were held Monday at 2 p.m., in the First Church in Chestnut Hill.

He died last Friday at his home, 30 Kingsbury road, Chestnut Hill. In recent years he had been associated with several enterprises as a trustee.

Mr. Allen was born in Boston in 1862, the son of William H. Allen who operated a leather business that had been in existence since 1831. He had attended Roxbury Latin School and Harvard, from which he was graduated in 1886.

He entered his father's business as a clerk and shipper, and became a partner in a few years. After his father's death in 1903, he ran the firm until 1908, when he closed it.

Retirement did not mean inactivity for him. He served as a Newton alderman from 1915 to 1921, and had been active in civic endeavor since that time. He was a hunting and fishing enthusiast.

In 1936, he wrote in the 50th anniversary book of his Harvard class: "Although I do not feel so, I presume I have already reached 'old age'. I feel I have been supremely fortunate to have had this long, happy, comfortable life."

He was a member of the Union Club of Boston, the New England Genealogical Society, the Bostonian Society and the Massachusetts Society of Mayflower Descendants.

He leaves two daughters, Mrs. Robert E. Peabody of Marblehead and Mrs. Archibald M. Howe of North Andover; a son, W. Lothrop, Jr., a San German, Cuba, sugar company executive; and seven grand children.

Mrs. Anna Hastings

Mrs. Anna (Coburn) Hastings, one of Weston's oldest and most beloved citizens, died Sunday at her home, 190 North avenue, Weston, after a brief illness. She was 97 years old. The widow of Francis H. Hastings, owner of the Hook and Hastings Co. organ firm, she had lived in Weston all her life and was active in civic and social activities there.

She was born in Weston Feb. 7, 1853, a daughter of Isaac and Julia (Cutter) Coburn. A year after her graduation from Weston High School in 1871, she became assistant to the principal, B. J. Larry. For many years, she taught at the little District School in the north part of town.

She was a member of the Women's Community League of Weston, the Weston branch of the Waltham Hospital Aid Society, and the Weston High School Association. She was also a member of the Republican Club of Massachusetts for a great many years.

An enthusiastic church worker, Mrs. Hastings was a member of the First Parish, Weston; and she belonged to the First Parish Friendship Society, the Ladies Benevolent Society, and the Women's Alliance.

In 1899 she was married to Mr. Hastings, for many years

Charles River Pollution Bill Passed by Senate

Legislation, which was originated by the City, to clear up pollution of the Charles River, is expected to become effective soon, following the passage by the Senate Monday of the bill to permit the Metropolitan District Commission to release millions of gallons of water into the river during dry periods.

The House-approved bill was passed by the Senate after Senator Richard H. Lee reprimanded his fellow senators for the long delay with the remark: "It looks like the Charles River might dry up before the Senate does." An amendment to make the bill effective immediately was adopted by a voice vote.

The legislation was introduced early in the session after a conference on Charles River pollution was conducted between city officials, public health officials, and MDC officials. The bill was originally introduced by Senator Lee and was re-written with a slight change and became House Bill 2864.

Under the bill the MDC will be allowed to release up to 15,000,000 gallons a day into the river, but not more than 50,000,000 gallons in any year. Communities along the river will be assessed by the MDC at the rate of $10 per million gallons according to the following percentages: Newton, 22; Waltham, 15; Weston, 7; Wellesley, 8; Waverly, 13; Cambridge, 16 and Boston, 19.

Senator Lee stated the project can be put into effect immediately by opening a valve on the Cochituate Aqueduct.

Miss Virginia Dewey, 84 Fairmont avenue, Newton, is attending the Wellesley Conference. She is taking courses in "Anglican Chanting" and "Choral Conducting."

Funeral services were held Tuesday at 3:00 at the First Parish Unitarian Church of Weston. Rev. Miles Hanson, Jr., will officiate. Interment is in the family lot in Linwood Cemetery.

owner of the Hook and Hastings Co., makers of organs. This firm constructed the famous Rockefeller organ in Riverside Church, New York City. The present organ in the Weston First Parish Church was contributed by Mrs. Hastings in memory of her husband. The Hastings railroad station in the district where they lived is also named for Francis Hastings.

Remembered for her love of people and her interest in the welfare of others, Mrs. Hastings leaves no immediate family, but her niece Miss Anna Hall, has been living with her for the past 34 years.
